Teen Tattler —

Ghost Stories Fill Bus as Band Returns from Burwell

BY PAT BRENNAN

Hi teenagers! By now all you bandsters should have recuperated from Burwell, but I'm afraid not from Crofton or from the Hays Days celebration. Yes, Burwell proved to be a lot of fun except for that tired, aching feeling (?)—especially for those ghost story-tellers on the bus coming home. No peace.

A lot of guys and gals showed up at the dance Friday night to hear Kathleen Flood sing "Because," "Make Believe" and "A! Sweet Mystery of Life." The teenagers went wild with applause.

An O'Neill visitor, Miss Sue Prey, won the door prize.

The chaperons were Mrs. Leo Mullen, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gray and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Flood. Thank you.

Tomorrow night will be a variety dance. There will be all kinds of dances, in fact, George Peters will call a square dance. We are sure to have your favorite kind of a dance, so be sure and come and be prepared for anything.

A few weeks ago I said Nancy Beha went to Omaha to audition at Schmoller and Meuller. She received word that she has been chosen to sing on Omaha's home talent radio show. They gave her a "I" for her audition.

Nancy sang Irish melodies on the "Voice of the Frontier," St. Patrick's day. Congratulations, Nancy!

Saturday night there will be a band concert and I'm warning you, if the band lived through this week they'll live through anything.

Another reminder of the big formal dance coming a week from tomorrow—Friday, August 26. We hope to have a favorite special orchestra but confirmation has not been heard so far.

I'll see you at Hays Days tomorrow night and the teenage dance tomorrow night.

Take care.
