Erma Elaine Luben, Norbert E. Clark Exchange Vows

INMAN—A pretty wedding ceremony took place in the Methodist church in Inman, on Friday, September 2, at 1:30 p.m. when Erma Elaine, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Luben, of Inman, became the bride of Norbert E. Clark, only son of A. G. Clark, of Burwell.

Rev. Roy M. Wingate performed the double-ring ceremony before a banked altar of white gladioli and blue asters.

Before the ceremony, Mrs. Ralph L. Gray, of Inman, played several piano selections, including "I Love You Truly" and "O, Promise Me." She also accompanied Mr. Gray when he sang "Because." Mrs. Gray also played strains from Lohengrin's "Wedding March" and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a street-length sweetheart style dress of powder blue silk taffeta. Her accessories were white and black, and her corsage was of white and rose carnations. Her only jewelry, a triple strand of pearls, was a gift of the bridegroom.

The bride chose for her attendant her cousin, Miss June Sanks, of Lexington. She wore a gray and black dress with black accessories. Her corsage was white carnations, and her jewelry was a double strand of pearls, a gift of the bride.

The bridegroom and his bestman, Robert E. Stevens, of Battle Creek, both wore business suits. They also wore white carnation boutonnières. The ushers were Raymond Luben, brother of the bride, and Harlan Moore, cousin of the bridegroom, both of Inman. They each wore business suits and also had white carnation boutonnières.

Mr. Luben, mother of the bride, wore a brown and gold street-length dress with brown accessories. Her corsage was white carnations.

Mrs. Clark, step-mother of the bridegroom, wore a brown dress with brown accessories. Her corsage was also white carnations.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Luben. The room was decorated in blue and white, the bride's chosen colors. A lunch of wedding cake, ice cream with blue bells, punch and iced tea was served to 40 guests. Mrs. Robert E. Stevens baked and decorated the three-tiered wedding cake.

Mrs. W. J. Boies, of Ewing, sister of the bride; Mrs. Billy Lindsay, of Burwell, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Lu-

ATKINSON—At an altar of mixed flowers and candelabra, last Thursday morning, at 8 o'clock, Miss Rita Laible became the bride of Glenn Gettert at St. Joseph's Catholic church in Atkinson. Rev. A. A. Lehmen performed the single-ring ceremony and nuptial mass.

The bride wore a gown of white slipper satin. The tight-fitting bodice was trimmed with a nylon yoke, and chantilly lace, which buttoned down the back with tiny buttons. The long, fitted sleeves were pointed and buttoned with tiny buttons at the wrist. The gathered skirt, trimmed with chantilly lace, fell in a full-length train. Her veil was a white net edged in lace and fell from a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of white gladioli, with white streamers.

Miss Theresa Laible, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Her dress was of dusty rose taffeta, fashioned with a net yoke, and tight fitting bodice. She wore a matching net veil, shoulder-length, with ribbon halo and long mitts. She carried a bouquet of pink gladioli.

The bridegroom was attended by John Laible, brother of the bride. The men wore dark suits and white carnation boutonnières.

The bride is the second youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Laible of Atkinson and has been employed in O'Neill.

Mr. Gettert is the only son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Gettert, of Atkinson. He is a veteran of two years of service with the navy. After his discharge, he was a partner in the Gettert pool hall until a year ago when he became employed by Consumers Public Power district in O'Neill.

The wedding breakfast was served to the wedding party at the O. K. Inn and at one o'clock a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

A three-tier cake was the centerpiece on the bride's table. The young couple entertained their relatives and friends at a wedding dance at the Crystal ballroom in Atkinson. They will make their home in an apartment in O'Neill.

Out-of-town guests who attended the wedding were the bride's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Smedley, of Chicago, Ill.

Ella Watson, of Inman, friend of the bride, were hostesses. Mrs. Robert Stevens had charge of the guest book.

For going away the bride chose a beige suit with green accessories. She wore a carnation corsage.

After a two-week honeymoon in Minnesota and the Dakotas, the young couple will be at home to their friends in O'Neill.

The bride is a graduate of the Inman high school with the class of 1948, and since that time has been employed by Kopecky Hay Co., of Inman.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Inman high school with the class of 1938. He served in the coast guard during World War II, and is now associated with the Clark & Mattson garage in Inman.

Out-of-town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Clark, of Burwell; Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Walker, of Burwell; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Walker, of Burwell; Mr. and Mrs. Keith De Lashmutt, of Elgin, William Luben and daughter, Leila, of Clearwater; Mrs. Mabel Boies, of Ewing; Mr. and Mrs. William J.
