

New Entertainment Committee

Lays Plans for Next Dance

BY PAT BRENNAN

Hi teenagers!

The brand new entertainment committee is now hard at work on their first dance which will be held a week from tomorrow night. With John O'Neill, John Uhl, Marde Birmingham, Nancy Beha, Dwayne Borg, Don Harmon, Marilyn Holclaw and Shirley Brandenberg in the lineup they are sure to go places; be sure to attend the dance Friday night, September 23.

St. Mary's academy is really off with a booming start with the first two weeks of school about over. The seniors elected their class officers last Friday afternoon. They are: Jack Gatz, president; Leona Troshynski, vice-president; Gayleen Scholtes, of Gordon, secretary; and Kathryn Judge, treasurer.

Initiation was held at St. Mary's academy last Thursday afternoon and night. The "freshies" were made to wear their clothes inside out and different colored shoes and socks. In the afternoon they had to bow down and say: "Roses are red violets are blue, you are a senior and we worship you."

Helen Harty made a mistake and said "freshman." She had to start all over again. Some were a little reluctant and others were just plain scared; but everyone had a gay time and they all survived.

I'll bet they're glad to have that over with.

Gean Stasch played some popular music on the piano while Benita Muff followed with a number of classic pieces on the accordion. They were really outstanding!

The O'Neill high school band has been parading out on the streets several times already since school has started. It was just for practice, of course. Wait until they really get going!

Jean Calloway has been in the hospital in Bassett recovering from an appendix operation.

By next week all the other classes will have chosen their officers, and the entertainment for the dance will have been completed, so I'll let you know in full detail about everything and until then I'll be seeing you.

Postscript: Don't forget to tune in for the radio version of the Teen Tattler at 9:45 a. m. Saturday over WJAG, 780 on your dial.

Program began with a horse-shoe pitching contest, won by Melvin Lamason.

A highlight of the day was the parade. Entries were in four divisions.

Prizes were given to the following children: Pets — Lloyd Fusselman, jr., first; Tommie Finley, fisherman and dog, second. Tricycles — Larry Walker, first; Kay Nissen, second. Doll carriages and wagons — Connie Riege, "Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe," first; Janice and Connie Nisen, "Uncle Sam," and "Statute of Liberty," second. Characters — Janet and Sheryl Weber, bride and bridegroom, first; LeRoy Clasey, bum, second.

In a baseball game between Page and Orchard, the hosts won 7-4. Darrel Heiss pitched for the winners while three hurlers performed for the losers.

Late in the game a unique situation developed when Kenny Heiss poked out a homerun and practically overtook a runner who was on second when Heiss' bridge, had gone back to third was at bat.

The runner, Dick Trowbridge, had gone back to third when Heiss connected, was held there by his coach, and was released as Heiss pulled up at third. The duo crossed the plate with Heiss three feet in the rear.

Highlight on the evening program was a softball game under the lights between the rural old men and town old men. The country cousins won, 30-15.

The day was climaxed with a bowery dance. There were free movies in the afternoon and evening.
