Veich-Smith Vows Said Sunday In Pretty Church Rite

Baskets of pink and white carnations decorated the altar of First Methodist church in O'Neill for the marriage of Miss Nelda Veich, of Spencer, to Raymond C. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike A. Smith, of O'Neill. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. V. R. Bell at 2:30 p. m. on Sunday, September 18.

Mrs. Donald Loy sang "Always" and "Because." She wore a teal blue satin formal. Mrs. Loy was accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Harold Seger, who also played the wedding march.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Frank Kenaston, of Spencer, wore a gown of white satin. Silver sequins framed the lace yoke. The gown, fashioned with long pointed sleeves, fitted bodice, and full net skirt, fell into an aisle-wide court train. Her fingertip veil of net was edged in chantilly lace and fell from a crown of lace and beads. Her jewelry was pearl earrings and a pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried an arm bouquet of red roses.

Miss Doris Smith, sister of the bridegroom, served as bridesmaid. She wore a gown of pink taffeta designed with a nimon overskirt. Her bouquet was of pink roses.

The bridegroom was attired in a blue-gray wool sharkskin suit. He wore a white carnation boutonniere.

Donald Loy, a friend of the bridegroom, served as bestman. He wore a brown tweed suit with a white carnation boutonniere.

Mrs. Kenaston, sister of the bride, wore a gray suit with a yellow corsage.

Mrs. Smith, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in a melon rose suit dress trimmed in black. Her accessories were also black. She wore a corsage of white gardenias.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents. The bride's table was decorated in pink and white streamers and centered with a four tiered wedding cake, baked by Mrs. Smith, and decorated with tiny pink roses and white doves. The tiers of the cake were pink and white marble alternated and it was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Pink roses encircled the cake. About 60 guests from O'Neill, Spencer and Valentine attended the reception.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home in O'Neill.

Miss Ethel Suchy September Bride

Miss Ethel Suchy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vince Suchy, and Floyd Hershiser, son of Mrs. Jennie Hershiser, were united in marriage on Monday, September 19. The 9 a. m. double ring ceremony took place at St. Patrick's Catholic church with Rev. C. J. Werner officiating.

The nuptial music was furnished by St. Patrick's choir.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in an ivory satin gown fashioned with a sweetheart neckline trimmed in seeded pearls, and long sleeves pointed over her wrists. The full skirt fell from a fitted bodice into a chapel sweep train. A tiara of orange blossoms caught and held her finger tip veil of net. Her only jewelry was a two strand pearl necklace. She carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums and talisman roses.

Miss Leona Hamilton attended the bride as maid-of-honor. She wore a rose colored gown fashioned with a lace bodice and full net skirt. Her elbow length mitts and net half-hat matched her gown. She carried a colonial bouquet.

Miss Dorothy Clark, a cousin of the bridegroom, wore a pink net gown trimmed in blue. Her elbow length mitts and bonnet were also of blue. She carried a colonial bouquet tied with matching satin streamers.

Miss Lois Harmon, a friend of the couple, was attired in a gown of blue net trimmed in pink with mitts and bonnet also of pink. Her colonial bouquet was tied with matching satin streamers.

The bridegroom wore a brown gabardine business suit. His only attendant, Richard Clark, was attired in a blue business suit. Their boutonnières were of white carnations.

Mr. Suchy, father of the bride, wore a dark business suit. His boutonniere was also a white carnation. Mrs. Suchy wore a navy two-piece dress with Winter white accessories. Her corsage was of white roses.

Mrs. Hershiser, mother of the bridegroom, also wore a navy two-piece dress with matching accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Immediately following the ceremony, breakfast was served to the wedding party and their immediate families at the M & M cafe.

A reception was held at the home of the bride from two until four. The bride's table was centered with a three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Two candelabra and bouquets of asters flanked the ends of the table.

The young couple entertained their friends at a dance at the American Legion auditorium the same evening.

Mrs. Hershiser is a graduate of O'Neill high school with the class of 1947. She has been employed at the O'Neill Auto Supply company since graduation.

Mr. Hershiser is also a graduate of O'Neill high school. He spent 18 months with the Navy and is now employed by the Shelhamer Oil and Equipment Co.
