WNAX MISSOURI VALLEY BARN DANCE

- Between 8:30 and 9:30 o'clock the regular Saturday WNAX barn dance show will originate in O'Neill. Come, have a whale of an evening with a show and dance.

Happy Jack O'Malley, a veteran of more than 20 years on the WNAX airwaves, gives out with some of that toe-tappin' fiddle music. Happy Jack made his first air appearance after he won an old-time fiddlers' contest with the station, and it was Happy who had the first commercial program on WNAX. Back in the '20's Happy, who used to be a bricklayer, would come right up to the studios in his mortar-spattered overalls, trade his trowel for a fiddle, and swing out with the waltzes and polkas still popular today.
