Cards Upset Cathedral

St. Mary's 'Six' Plays 'Iron Man' Ball in Capitol City

The St. Mary's academy six-man football team Friday evening took a 12-6 verdict at Lincoln Cathedral. It was an upset in six-man circles and the O'Neill club played the entire game without relief.

The "iron men" of the academy, in their initial game of the 1949 season, took a six-point lead in the first quarter when Shorty Miles, the Cardinal's outstanding back, zoomed around his right end and ploughed 55 yards for the touchdown.

With the second and third periods scoreless, Jack Arbuthnot's Cardinals, late in the third canto, drove to the Lincoln 2-yard-line but the Lincoln line held and the hosts took over as the third period ended.

On the first play of the fourth quarter, Jack Gatz, a Cardinal end, dove on a Lincoln fumble in the end zone for the second TD.

The score: St. Mary's academy 12, Lincoln Cathedral 6.

The Lincoln crew took the fourth period kickoff and scored on a 22-yard end-around play after driving from the Cathedral 20.

The Cardinals played heads-up defensive ball throughout the game which Coach Arbuthnot termed "a very even match."

By virtue of the victory, unofficial ratings of the state's six-man teams, show St. Mary's in 12th place.

Coach Arbuthnot commented that the pressing offense and defense were weak as was the offensive ground attack. But defensively, the Cardinals displayed considerable talent.

Today (Thursday) the St. Mary's club journeys to Marty, S. D. Arbuthnot said it is an Indian school and the enrollment was over 400. "With an enrollment as large as 400, I expect we will be facing a tough team," Arbuthnot concluded.

During this week, the Cardinals drilled almost exclusively on passing offense and defense and their offensive ground attack.

Summary of Card-Cathedral game:

St. Mary's academy: Ends—Gatz, Hickey; Center—Mangan; Backs—Willis, Uhl, Miles, Burns, Rice, Reeves, Koberstein; Lincoln Cathedral: Ends—Centers—Ferris, Jacobs; Backs—Tureblook, Kryger, O'Grady, O'Donnell, Gourley, J. Steinauer.

Welcome, OLDTIMERS!

During O'Neill's Diamond Jubilee Week we extend a warm welcome to oldtimers, especially, to visit our store—the new firm with the old name. Gilligan & Stout were listed in the O'Neill business directory at the turn of the century; the firm name was absent for more than a decade; then, in 1948, was restored with the opening of O'Neill's third drug store.

EWING DROPS ELGIN, 48-0

EWING—With one victory already tucked away, Ewing smothered Elgin 48-0, on the loser's gridiron Friday afternoon. Pat Sanders, a plunging halfback for the winning club, tallied 22 points, as the Tigers made it two victories in two starts in the 1949 football season.

Seven plays after the opening kickoff, Sanders took the pigskin to pay dirt from 12 yards out. He also plunged for the extra point.

Good connected with a pass to Jack Charvat that brought the second score and Good plunged for the extra point.

As the first quarter ended Ewing was out in front of their hosts 14-0.

Early in the second canto, Sanders went over the double stripe again and Cloyd romped 54 yards for the next counter as the half ended with the visitors ahead 27-0.

Ewing's fullback, Jack Pruden, opened the second half scoring when he ripped off 27 yards and six points. Mert Dierks, 185-pound end, hung on to a pass that meant the extra point for the Tigers.

During the final period Sanders scored again and plunged for the point after touchdown.

The last score of the contest saw Charvat in the end zone on the receiving end of a TD-labeled pass. Sanders carried the ball over for the extra point.

Ewing's outstanding defensive man was Pruden, the fullback and linebacker.

Collection of Pitchers Is Redistributed

ATKINSON — The late Mrs. L. G. Linville for many years collected, as a hobby, pitchers of all sizes, shapes and description. Her collection grew until it numbered in the hundreds. She was very fond of them because most of them were gifts from her many friends who had taken an interest in her hobby.

They were displayed in cabinets and each had a small story as to origin or as a sentimental keepsake.

When Mrs. Linville died some time ago, her collection went to her daughter, Mrs. Ivan Dickerson. Mrs. Dickerson has kept them for a time as a cherished part of her mother's busy life but Tuesday, September 27, she gave a party for those who had given her mother the pitchers and returned them so that each of her friends could add one more line to the legend of his or her own particular pitcher. It once was a part of the collection belonging to Mrs. Linville.

EAGLES DROP 2nd GRID START

Bassett Knocks Off Eagles, 13-0, Friday Night At Carney Park

In a football game marred by frequent penalties, a fast, low running Bassett club dumped the slow, high running O'Neill high school Eagles 13-0, here Friday night at Carney park before an estimated crowd of 1,300 fans.

Unofficially, the game referees measured off 135 yards in penalties. Bassett absorbed 80 of the penalty yards.

The Eagles did not make a threat throughout the game, and it was not until late in the fourth period did they penetrate inside the visiting club's 30-yard line.

On the first of the two TD's, Bassett scored late in the first quarter, aided by an O'Neill fumble.

After recovering the fumble on the midfield stripe, Bassett's Joe Richards, on a fake handoff, pitched an underhand lateral to Bob Baker who was sweeping the Eagle left end. He got up to the O'Neill 38-yard line before he was dropped.

An off-tackle play netted four yards and on the next play Joe Richards worked the fake handoff, pitch-out play that sent Bobby Baker over for the initial score.

The plunge for the extra point was short.

The second canto was scoreless.

During the third period, the second and final six points came after Bassett blocked an Eagle punt and recovered the ball on the host's 20.

Les Bennett on the first play, bulled his way nine yards to the Eagle 11. Bob Baker made it a first down on the nine-yard line and then lugged the pigskin on the following play to the six.

Joe Richards, on the next play, started to sweep the O'Neill right end but cut in sharply over tackle to score standing up.

The end sweep for the extra point was good and the final score ended Bassett 13, O'Neill 0.

Both the Bassett forward wall and the backfield did an outstanding job both defensively and offensively. Outstanding men for the visiting club were Joe Richards and Bob Baker.

It was generally agreed that the O'Neill line was doing a good defensive job. However, the line could not open holes long enough for the backs to get through them.

The Eagle backs were slow in getting started and were running upright which made them easy prey for the low tackling Bassett crew.

The Eagles tangle with Ewing for the Diamond Jubilee-Fall Festival tit here Friday, September 30.
