Car-Truck Collide In West O'Neill

A car-truck collision occurred at 6 p. m. Monday in West O'Neill causing minor injuries to the occupants of the truck.

The occupants of the three-quarter ton pickup truck, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Yantzie, of O'Neill are under treatment for minor cuts and bruises.

Driver of the car, L. G. Gillespie, said that he was blinded by the sun when he attempted to make a left hand turn South of Douglas street, at the intersection, one-half block East of Cokers' Lockers.

Gillespie said he "hit the left rear wheel of the East-bound truck Yantzie was driving." The Gillespie car skidded around and after hitting a post, straddled the sidewalk on the Southeast corner of the intersection.

Mr. Gillespie did not estimate the amount of damage caused by the accident.
