Mode O' Day Shop Opens Today

Through a business transaction between H. W. Heriford and Mrs. Katye Peterson, the Mode O' Day frock shop has been established in the building which formerly housed the Hofman Electric one door West of the M & M cafe. Formal opening is today (Thursday).

Mrs. Peterson comes from Tekamah. For a number of years she was engaged in educational work in Nebraska high schools. She is well known to many in the Holt county area as she was principal and normal training teacher in Atkinson high school during the 1947-48 school term. Mrs. Peterson has a daughter, Jo-Jene, who is a sophomore in O'Neill high school.

Of some 450 Mode O' Day shops in the western half of the United States, Mrs. Peterson is the owner of the O'Neill shop. These shops are independently owned. There are now 10 factories, two of which are in Fremont and Hastings. All Mode O' Day shops feature a California style using the open type of window display. Color scheme of the shop is two-tone green with pink floral wall paper.

"The O'Neill shop will feature dresses, blouses, lingerie and hosiery in all styles and colors at moderate prices within reach of all," Mrs. Peterson said.

Budget and homemaker news by Bonnie McDonald

FROM A to Z... the best suggestion we've seen for the kid's room. Use alphabet blocks as drawer knobs on their chest of drawers. H for hankerchief... S for sock... U for underwear. Educational as well as attractive. Budget note: Fix up old chest with paint and select blocks of contrasting colors.

BOOTS... BOOTS... ENGINEER BOOTS. Some call 'em trucker boots. They're 11-inch high black boots for men. Oil-treated to resist weather, extra thick soles, non-skid heels. Adjustable straps at top, and ankle for smooth fit. Sizes 6 to 12. Low-priced at Brown-McDonalds at only $9.95.

A NITEY-NITE that promises to be a good warm one. NITEY-NITE sleepers are famous favorites for small boys and girls. 2-piece sleepers with feet... and snap-on pants. Pink, blue or yellow. Sizes 0 to 4. $1.98.

COLOR RIGHT and color bright is your cue for setting the breakfast nook off from the rest of the kitchen. Use a brightly colored patterned wallpaper... or select a color that's contrasting and sunny. OR... apply the same trick to the floor—patterned rug under the table or a bright colored patch of linoleum or tile.

RINGS ON HER FINGERS and bells on her toes. She'll draw attention wherever she goes... the lady who's wearing costume jewelry selected at Brown-McDonald's. Clever designs, skilled craftsmanship, non-tarnishing metals make this collection of pins, earrings, necklaces and bracelets look more costly than their low prices... 98c and $1.98.

GOT A HUNCH JUNIOR will raise a storm at the taste of that new medicine. Precede the dose by having him suck on an ice cube. It desensitizes the taste buds and medicine becomes tasteless. A little more subtle than covering taste with sugar, etc.

EVERYONE MAKES MISTAKES... hence erasers on pencils. If you think you'll get paint on door knobs or hinges when painting... cover them liberally with petroleum jelly before painting. Then just wipe off paint and jelly.

SNUG AS A BUG in bunny-soft flannel gowns, pajamas, sleepers from Brown-McDonald's. Sleepwear for men and women, boys, girls, and infants. Comfortable, warm, easy to launder... each of these flannel sleepers is tagged with a dream of a price. For example: women's gowns at $1.98. Girls' pajamas at $2.98. Men's pajamas at $2.29. Boys' pajamas only $1.69.

THERE'S A LUCKY SEVEN in your future! Watch this paper... and listen to our daily chats over radio stations KMMJ, WJAG and KBRL. Ask at your J. M. McDonald Co. store for program time.
