Harmon-Vorce Nuptials Read in Church Ceremony

A very pretty wedding, before an altar of mixed Fall flowers, was solemnized at First Presbyterian church in O'Neill at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon October 9, when Miss Lois Charleen Harmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris L. Harmon, became the bride of Alvin R. Vorce, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Vorce. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ralph Gerber, pastor. The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. She wore a suit of dark green gabardine with brown accessories and wore a corsage of copper tinted roses.

Miss Bonnie Jean Harmon, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. She wore a gray suit with black and gray accessories. Her corsage was of copper chrysanthemums.

The bridegroom was attired in a blue-gray gabardine suit. Eugene Porter served as best man. He wore a light brown gabardine suit. Both had white carnation boutonnières.

Donald and Wayne Harmon, brothers of the bride, were ushers. They wore pink carnation boutonnières.

Mrs. Donald Loy sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because." Mrs. John Harbottle played the accompaniment and the nuptial music.

The bride's mother wore a two-toned gray two-piece street-length dress. Her corsage was of baby lavender chrysanthemums.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents after the ceremony for approximately 125 guests. The table was covered with a lace tablecloth and centered with a three-tier cake decorated with pink roses and topped with a miniature bride and groom. The cake was baked and decorated by the bride's mother. Double crystal candle holders held pink candles at each side of the cake.

Miss Elaine Ressel had charge of the guest book. Miss Leona Hamilton and Mrs. Wayne Harmon had charge of the gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Vorce left on a short wedding trip for about a week. Upon their return, they will be at home in one of the new houses built by Carl Asimus.

Mrs. Vorce is a graduate of O'Neill high school, class of 1947. She has been employed at Consumers Public Power district since August, 1947.

Mr. Vorce, who is a graduate from O'Neill high school, class of 1946, is employed at Shelhamer's super market.

Out-of-town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Harmon, of Ansley, grandparents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Harmon and daughters, of Scottsbluff; Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Jones, of Glendale, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Houfek and son and daughter-in-law, of Prague; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Porter, of Albion; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bryan and daughters, of Ainsworth; Miss Elaine Ressel, of Lincoln; and Mrs. Harold McNally, of Ainsworth.
