

GILLESPIE WINS 50-YEAR AWARD

L. G. Gillespie, of O'Neill, was honored last Thursday evening for a half-century of continuous membership in Garfield lodge 95 of the AF & AM order. The Holt county assessor was recipient of a 50-year pin from Ernest A. Schiefelbein, of Wahoo, the Nebraska Masonic grand master.

On October 5, 1899, Gillespie was initiated into the Garfield lodge at the age of 24. Since then he has been active in all phases of lodge activities.

Gillespie recalls every member who was present on his initiation date. However, Gillespie added, all, except himself, are deceased.

J. C. Harnish, then master, administered the initiation ritual and A. B. Newell, S. J. Weeks, Merritt Martin, A. Baker, R. H. Dickson, R. H. Jameson, and C. C. Millard were his assistants.

Shortly after his entry into the Masons, he was selected Tyler (sentry). Then after his return from a two-year Klondike mining expedition in Alaska, he served as junior and senior deacon, junior and senior warden, and secretary.

Six times, between 1907 and 1941, he served the lodge as master.

His first term at the high served in that capacity until 1910. Again in 1920 and 1921 he was chosen and his sixth and final term at the distinguished post came in 1940.

Besides his terms in offices, he has represented the lodge "dozens of times" at grand lodge meetings.

Mr. Gillespie is also a member of the Veteran Mason's association, is a 32d degree Scottish rite Mason and a Shriner in a Sioux City chapter.

With all of his activities in the Masons, at one time Mr. Gillespie recalled, three generations of the Gillespie family were a member of the Garfield lodge, his father, B.

S. Gillespie, and his son, W. B. Gillespie.

Calf Show & Sale To Be Saturday

Over 80 4-H club calves and about 120 head of commercial calves have been consigned for the annual sandhills feeder calf show and sale to be held Saturday, October 15, at the Fredrickson Livestock Commission company sale barn here.

The event is scheduled to get underway with a 4-H calf show at 9 a.m. K. C. Fouts, of the extension animal husbandry division of the University of Nebraska, will judge the show.

Prizes for the show, given by the O'Neill Chamber of Commerce, will be in ribbons and cash with the exception of the showmanship award.

In the showmanship division, the traditional show halter, brush and comb set will be given.

The sale will get underway at 1 p.m. and buyers are expected from eight or nine states. Sale morning consignments should be unloaded at the barn between 8 and 9 a.m., and they may be either single or in groups of five steers or heifers.

School Lunches To Begin Soon

PAGE—Over 120 attended a birthday anniversary party Friday evening at the Methodist church parlors that was sponsored by the Youth Fellowship. There was a table for each month of the year and each table was in charge of some member whose birthday occurred in that month. Each table had a birthday cake and was decorated in keeping with the season in which the birthdays occurred.

January was a Wintry scene. February's table was centered by a Valentine. March was decorated with green and white paper and shamrock leaves and the cake was decorated in green.

April's table was decorated with umbrellas for April showers. May's was centered with a May pole. June's was a bride's table and was beautifully decorated in white. July was in keeping with the Fourth, even to sparklers. August was the time of the circus and showed different animals. September had a red school house. October was for Hallowe'en and was decorated accordingly.

November was illustrated by Thanksgiving with a home of plenty, pumpkin, Autumn leaves and a glass turkey. December was for Christmas with appropriate decorations.

Miss Barbara Trowbridge had charge of the program and gave the general announcing. Each table contributed to the program in accordance with their month. The evening was "very enjoyable."

The Only New Way Since Grandmother's Day

The Electric Way Is The Modern Way

- Clean
- Fast
- Safe
- Economical
- Automatic
- Dependable

Truly, the modern electric range is the only thing really new in cooking methods since the old flame-type cooking principles of grandmother's day.

And what a wonderful day it was for grandma, mother and even the new bride when clean, fast, automatic, flameless electric cooking made its debut. For electric cooking is so easy, so convenient, so economical that it brought a bright new day of kitchen freedom to modern homemakers.

When You Select a New Range Be Sure It Is Modern
Of Course, That Means Electric
