

Tractor Upset Injures Woman

ORCHARD — Mrs. Bennet Stelling, Thursday, October 6, suffered a broken leg and a deep cut on the other when the tractor she was driving overturned, pinning her under the machine.

She was treated in a Norfolk hospital.

The accident occurred when she and her husband were putting hay into the barn. Mrs. Stelling turned around to look at the hay siling and the tractor hit a rock, causing it to overturn.

Orchard Resident, 79, Succumbs

ORCHARD — Funeral services were held here Friday at 2 p.m. from the United Brethren church here for Mrs. Tillie Smeall, 79, who died at her home Wednesday, October 5.

Rev. C. R. Anderson officiated at the rites and burial was at Fremont.

The late Mrs. Smeall had been ill since August 26, when she inhaled a strong insect spray solution she was using. Since that time, until her death, she had been confined to her bed.

Mr. Smeall died about 10 years ago.

In 1910 Mr. and Mrs. Smeall moved to Orchard from Dodge and settled on the East edge of town. It has been the family home since.

Married twice, Mrs. Smeall's survivors include: sons—Ralph Molte, of Oshkosh, and Otto Molte, of Fremont; six grandchildren and five great grandchildren. A son died in infancy.

Mrs. Smeall was a member of the local Rebekah lodge, the F L and T club and the EUB Ladies Aid Society.
