To Wear Uniforms During Scout Week

A third Girl Scout troop has been organized in O'Neill. The troop will be designated as No. 3 until Scout headquarters in New York City confirms a permanent title.

The organization meeting for the new troop was held Monday afternoon at the American Legion club. Thirty-three Scouts and several interested adult workers were present. All Scouts in the city have been "pooled" to reorganize into three—instead of two—troops.

Troops and their leaders are: Irish Lassies, Mrs. H. L. Lindberg; Purple Pansies, Mrs. Lowell Johnson; troop No. 3, Mrs. William J. Beha, (Mrs. Gordon Harper, assistant leader).

Meanwhile, plans are being drawn for a Brownie troop. Acting in making these arrangements are Mrs. Bennett Sanders, Mrs. Gene Sullivan and Mrs. Larry Johnson.

The Scouts will hold a Hal-lowe'en party at the Legion club on Tuesday afternoon.

Next week—October 30 to November 5, inclusive—is national Girl Scout week. All Girl Scouts in the city will wear uniforms at school and in their various functions throughout the week.

Birthday-Farewell Dinner Held

A combination birthday anniversary - farewell dinner was held Sunday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Gildersleeve. The occasion was Mrs. H. D. Gildersleeve's birthday anniversary and the eve of the departure of Mrs. Violet Gildersleeve, who had been visiting here. She is Doctor Gildersleeve's mother and her home is in Los Angeles, Calif.

Out-of-town relatives and friends present were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swihart, of Niobrara; Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Swihart, of Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Jenkins, of Carroll; Rol-lie Wilson, of Niobrara; and Dr. Norman Rathman, of Blair, who came by airplane.
