

ATKINSON READIES FOR ARMISTICE

Farley-Tushla Post to Conduct Double-Rooster Parachute Jump

ATKINSON — Once again Atkinson residents will enjoy a town-wide Armistice day celebration with the Farley-Tushla post 36, of the American Legion, making plans for the day.

The event will get underway with a double-rooster parachute jump, an event which has attracted considerable interest in former celebrations.

Commander John Dvorak said the jump would be made at 1 p.m. and that the persons getting the roosters after they land will be awarded not only the fowls but an extra prize.

Beginning at 5 p.m. the American Legion auxiliary will serve a supper in Memorial hall. Mrs. Dan O'Connell, president of the auxiliary, is supervising the committee in charge. Serving on the committee will be Mrs. Mary Gilg, Mrs. Fred Mack, Mrs. Jesse James, Mrs. Anna Judge, and Mrs. Herman Schrader, sr.

The menu will include oyster stew, or chile, sandwiches, pie and coffee. An estimated 200 to 250 persons are expected.

North Dakotans in First Nebraska Visit
ATKINSON — Visitors last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman McDaniel, of Atkinson, were Mrs. William Dick and children, William, jr., and Dorothy, G. H. McDaniel and Leslie McDaniel, all of Elliot, N. D. They left Atkinson Monday morning to return to their homes. It was their first trip to Nebraska.

G. H. McDaniel is the father of Herman McDaniel, of Mrs. Dick and of Leslie McDaniel. Sunday noon Mrs. McDaniel entertained at dinner for her guests. Others there were Mr. and Mrs. Pat Corrigan and Mrs. Julia Samples.

Thursday the McDaniels and their guests were at O'Neill.

Plan Bazaar
ATKINSON — Mrs. Herman Grothe entertained members of the Dorcas society Wednesday at the regular monthly meeting. Plans for the annual bazaar were discussed.

'Gay Nineties' Theme Of Legion Party

ATKINSON — Farley-Tushla post 36, of the American Legion, sponsored the first of a contemplated series of bi-monthly Winter parties Wednesday evening in the Legion clubrooms. A night club idea was used.

The Gay Nineties theme was carried out for last night's program which consisted of two floor shows and an evening of dancing to the music of an orchestra. Serving on the committee for the first party were: D. R. Davis, B. H. Wilson, J. R. Castner and Charles E. Chace.

John J. Dvorak, commander of the Atkinson Legion post, said it is hoped the parties can be held throughout the Winter and that guests will come from other towns as well as from Atkinson. A Legion member and his wife may bring one other non-Legion couple as guests, it was said.

7 Musicians Picked For State Clinic

ATKINSON — Seven instrumental and vocal musicians of Atkinson high school have been selected to attend the all-state music clinic to be at Norfolk November 17, 18 and 19, according to Miss Leona Kilmurry and T. H. Lynch, directors of music in the school.

Chosen by the clinic voca committee to represent Atkinson high were: Joan Jarvis, second soprano; Jean Humphrey, second alto; Robert Lemmer, baritone; and Dick White, first tenor. All are seniors except Dick, who is a sophomore.

Playing in the clinic orchestra will be Margaret Rohrs, oboe, and Larry Humphrey, clarinet. Lois Ratliff will play baritone horn in the clinic band.

The 3-day clinic will culminate in massed orchestra, band and chorus to be heard in a concert on Saturday evening, November 19.

Warner L. Imig, a member of the music staff at the University of Colorado, will conduct the clinic chorus.

COMEDY PICKED
ATKINSON — "It Might Happen to You," a farce comedy in three acts, has been chosen for the Atkinson high school junior class play. It was announced this week. The play is by Robert Ray. Neither the cast nor the date of presentation have been named.

1,200 Cattle Sold At Fredrickson's

Twelve hundred head of cattle and 600 head of hogs were sold at the Fredrickson Livestock Commission company here Thursday, October 27.

The cattle sold steady at prices fractionally lower than those of the October 20 sale. Heifer calves, good yearlings steers and heifers held steady with only a few good choice steers on hand.

Steer calves cleared at $22.50 to $24.25, while yearlings steers brought $21.85 down with yearling heifers selling for $16.50 to $18.50. Breeding cows sold from $16 down while canners and cutters brought from $10 to $12.50. Two hundred and ten to 270 pound butcher hogs brought a top of $17.20 with the lighter weights selling for 50 cents less per hundred weight.

Sows sold freely around $16 with a few choice ones bringing up to $16.60. Weaning pigs brought $10 to $14 per head.

James Merriman and Thomas Harty, both students at Creighton university spent October 21 to 24, with their respective parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Merriman and Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Harty.
