When the grand march was over, witches laid aside their broomsticks, and all of the children joined in circle games, by grades.

One little kindergartner who came as a Brownie, shyly replied when questioned that the best part of the whole party came when the "pictures were shown." The "picture" involved a number of animated cartoons projected by Viola Haynes. Many such as "Scat Cats" were particularly appropriate for Halloween, and others were based on well-known fairy tales like "Jack and the Beanstalk."

Even after the films the evening wasn't over, for the children ended their two hours of fun by lining up for sack lunches of sandwiches, cookies, Halloween candies and pop. This was the first party to be planned on so large a scope by the P-TA — organization, and sponsors were so pleased with the results and the minimum of hard work due to good beforehand organization that many express a desire the party could be repeated another year—perhaps for an even larger group of children.

Mrs. Ralph Gerber, program chairman of the P-TA, was overall chairman. Judges for the costumes were Rev. and Mrs. V. R. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Manson and Miss Elja McCullough. Accompaniments were played by Miss Rosemary Von Deracek and Miss Esther Kinnier.

Committees assisting were comprised of one or more teachers and the room mothers from their rooms. They were as follows:

Invitations — Miss Loretta Enright, Mrs. Palmer Skulborstad and Mrs. Virgil Laursen. Decorations — Mrs. Harold Donohoe, Mrs. Harvey Sawyer and Mrs. Roy Lawrence. Entertainment — Mrs. Grace Peterson, Miss LaVerne Schultz, Miss Hilda Gallagher, Mrs. Larry Johnson, Mrs. Benny Hill, Mrs. W. W. Waller, Mrs. Lawrence Haynes, Mrs. Neil Daves and Mrs. Melvin Marcellus.

P-TA fathers who assisted with the program or with cleanup work or both were Raymond Eby, Larry Johnson, Neil Daves, Archie McMasters, Bob Kurtz, Homer Asher, Harrison Bridge, W. W. Waller and Bennett Gillespie.
