

Auxiliary Hears Bazaar Report

Seventy members of Simonson unit 93 of the American Legion auxiliary enjoyed a Christmas party in connection with the regular meeting held on Wednesday, December 7. The business session with Mrs. Ira H. Moss presiding was conducted in the lounge room lighted by a Christmas tree. Mrs. Moss expressed the appreciation to the officers, committee members and members for the fine cooperation in con-

THE MEMORY LINGERS ON

A jolly good way to remember your friends and relatives this Christmas is to send gift subscriptions to The Frontier. They are easy to order. They last all year and the cost is small compared to the pleasure given. Each gift will be announced in your name with a beautiful printed card mailed to reach the addressee just the right time before Christmas nection with the annual bazaar. Bazaar contributions which were unsold were shipped to the Lincoln Veterans hospital gift shop.

With each NEW subscription a copy of The Diamond Jubilee Edition will be sent FREE!

Receipt of the unit poppy order for 1950 was acknowledged. A $20 contribution to "Gifts for Yanks Who Gave" was approved. The unit voted to again serve as sponsoring organization for three Girl Scout troops.

The president, Mrs. Moss, reminded all members that 1950 membership dues should be paid prior to January 1 and urged all to renew before New Year's eve.

Mrs. George Head, a new member, was in attendance.

The name of Mrs. Marie McDonald, who recently transferred her membership to Simonson unit from Atkinson's Farley-Tushla unit, was drawn for the $5 attendance award, but she was not present so the award will be $10 at the January meeting.

At the close of the business session, Santa appeared and distributed gifts to all. Lunch was served in the club room by a committee composed of Lois Saindon, Claeselle Sullivan, Mrs. Edward McManus, Twila Hicks, Mrs. Gene Sanders, Mrs. Don McKamy and Mrs. Art Brinkman.

The serving table covered with a lace cloth carried out the holiday theme with red tapers and Christmas wreaths, and even the bright salads added a festive touch.

Mrs. Johnson Entertains— The O'Neill Garden club met with Mrs. Mae Johnson Friday for its annual Christmas party. Mrs. Johnson gave the lesson on "Phlox." Following a cake quiz there was an exchange of gifts which were pulled out of a garden chest. Lunch was served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Johnson entertained the former's father and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Johnson, of Lexington, from Friday until Monday.

Lyle C. McKim, jr., visited his sister, Miss Hydrad KcKim, in Omaha last week.

Mrs. Max Wanser, and Mrs. Melvin Ruzicka were in Norfolk recently.
