

Music Department In Yule Program

EWING—The Ewing high school music department will present a program of vocal and instrumental music tonight (Thursday).

The program will include numbers by the girls' glee club, mixed chorus, girls' sextet, boys' quartet, and the 20-piece band. Esther Schram is music instructor.

This afternoon (Thursday) the kindergarden through the fifth grade will present a program in the school auditorium for parents and friends. The program is being prepared by Miss Iva Salo, Mrs. Neva Bergstrom and Genevieve Vander-smick.

School will be dismissed on Friday, December 23, for one week of Christmas vacation, and will be resumed on January 2.

Dierks and Steskal Share Honors

EWING—The pep club feted the Cornbelt conference champion Ewing high Tigers at an informal party and dance last Thursday evening. Highlight of the entertainment was the announcement of the results of a previous election in which the pep club chose Mert Dierks as the 1949 "Tiger". The football team elected Nadine Steskal "Tigress" of 1949. Jerral Dean Black made the announcement and presented gifts to the honored guests. Mrs. Wilda Carr and Mrs. O. D. Smith, pep club sponsors, were in charge of the event.

Boy, 2½, Strangles To Death in Crib

CHAMBERS—Stevie Chamberlain, 2½-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Chamberlain, of Norfolk, strangled to death in his crib recently. The child had been taking his afternoon nap.

The mother is a niece of Mrs. Will David, of Chambers.

Mrs. David and son, Virgil, and Mrs. Verle David and son, Lyle, drove to Stanton last Thursday to attend funeral services.
