HOLT COUNTY EDUCATIONAL NOTES

An art course taught by Philip Reuschoff, of the University of Nebraska, will begin Saturday morning, January 28, at 9 a. m. in the O'Neill public school building. This is a three-hour course.

A home craft and toy making course, taught by Miss Lulu Way and Ray Schreiner, of the Wayne State Teachers' college faculty, will begin at 9 a. m. Saturday, February 4.

Some misinformers have given "out" the indication that these two courses are the same. Naturally, such an indication is wrong. Certainly there would not be two institutions offering the same course here at the same time. It is too difficult to get these courses to consider such a waste of effort for them. A geography of Nebraska bus tour course is being planned for the last week in May. Plans are not complete as yet.

We are receiving a wonderful response from the rural schools in the March of Dimes campaign.—By Elja McCullough county superintendent.
