LINCOLN JOURNAL

9 weeks $1
 A Year $5.

For war maps and pictures, you need a big daily newspaper. People taking 30c a week papers pay $1.50 a year, and due to not being paid ahead can easily switch. They get their other mail through the postoffice.
 The Daily Lincoln Nebraska State Journal can give two to ten hours later news out on rural routes and in many towns because it is the only large state daily between Omaha and Denver printing at night, in fact after 5 p. m. The Lincoln Journal prints editions right up until train time day and night. The Morning Journal comes in time for mail delivery the same day. Dailies printed on the Iowa line edit for Iowa readers.
 The Lincoln Journal sells for three to five dollars a year less than any other big State morning daily, and is priced as low as day late afternoon papers.
 By mail in Nebraska and North Kansas, nine weeks daily $1.00; daily with Sunday twelve weeks $2.00; a year $5.00 daily, $8.00 with Sunday; 25c a month higher to other states.
 Order direct or thru our office.
