

NOW ⁴ POINTS FOR USED FATS

Help Increase Supplies of Soap and Other Peacetime Products By Saving More Used Fats

Industrial fats far short of last year! We are almost down to the bottom of the barrel. The nation's industrial fat supply is millions of pounds less than it was in 1944. We need fully as much as last year to help make the soaps and other civilian goods you want and need so badly. So...

If you want more soap and soap flakes... if you're dreaming of nylons, sheets, cotton fabrics and want them to hurry back to the store counters... you can help by saving those used kitchen fats as you never saved before! Save every drop, every day!

These fats are vitally necessary to help speed greater supplies of soaps and hundreds of other things—like new cars, electric washers, irons, refrigerators and tires. Industry must have these fats... to help get to you more quickly the peacetime products you've been longing to have for years!

So skim and scrape and scoop just as you did so faithfully before V-J Day. To prove how important it is, your government has increased the point bonus. So help meet this nation's need by continuing to save used fats. If you can't find a store that accepts used fats, call Home Demonstration or County Agent.

Two Farmers, One Rancher in Holt Are Selected

The farms of Harry Tegeler, Page, L. R. Tompkins, Inman, and E. J. Dale Revell, Page, have been selected to represent the Holt Soil Conservation District in the World-Herald Soil Conservation Recognition Program.

These farms were selected by the supervisors from a group of 14 which were nominated as having done an outstanding job of conserving moisture and the land with its fertility. The supervisors visited the farms and looked into the records of the work done and were pleased with the good results accomplished by this group.

In picking out three farms consideration was given to differences in farms and ranches and to the types of farming and ranching areas in the county. An effort was made to choose farms to represent the different types of farming and ranching areas.

The Tegeler farm represents the farming area since most of it is in crop land. The Tompkins ranch represents the ranching or grass area since it consists principally of grassland. The Revell farm represents the in between area with grassland and cropland about equal in importance to the operation 66 the unit.

The conservation practices in operation on the Tegeler farm are: use of land according to its capabilities, contour farming, seeding, grass and legumes for hay on land not suitable for farming, seeding permanent grasses on land for pasture, following a crop rotation with grass and legumes in the rotation; rotation grazing, seeding field borders and turn rows to grass, deferred grazing and a farmstead windbreak.

On the Tompkins ranch are such protectives as: use of land according to capabilities, seeding of permanent grass for hayland and grazing land, seeding of legumes in perennial hayland, adequate stock water properly located, proper stocking of grazing land, deferred grazing, distribution of salt and mineral feeding areas to secure more uniform grazing, mowing weeds on grazing land, crop rotations with legumes in the rotation on cropland, field shelterbelts and livestock windbreaks and protecting trees from grazing damage.

The conservation practices in operation on the Revell farm are: land use based on its capabilities, contour farming, terracing, strip cropping, wind strip cropping, subsurface tillage, terrace outlets and grasses waterways, crop rotations with legumes and grasses included to

Telephone Instruments Are Coming Off the Production Lines at an Increasing Rate

Telephone factories, which for several years were making war equipment, now are producing telephones for civilian use at an increasing rate from week to week. Just as fast as we receive them, they are being installed for those who have been waiting.

The big reason we have not been able to supply all those in this city who have placed orders with us for telephone service is that we haven't had enough telephone instruments. We have sufficient central office switching equipment and outside wire facilities here to take care of the installation of new service as fast as telephone instruments become available.

With the increased production rate, we will be able to fill, by early in 1946 or sooner, every order now delayed because of lack of telephone instruments.

If you are waiting for telephone service, we assure you that as soon as we know definitely when we can install your telephone, we shall get in touch with you. Thanks very much for your patience.
