 saintly and brave clergyman.

A prairie fire, thought to have started by hunters, burned thirteen stacks of hay near Clear-art. . . . A barn burned near Tilden with hay, grain and harness. . . . The Valentine Republican says we are going to have a radio station here, one up there and that the state highway patrol is receiving bids for the construction of twelve sending and receiving medium wave stations, and the installations for sixty patrol cars. There will be two 300 foot towers at each station, and a small building for the apparatus. The two stations in North Nebraska will be at O'Neill and Valentine. Apparently it will necessitate at least two employees for each station, to give twenty-four hour service.

The Halloween
 Pests Take Notice

Again the time draws near to celebrate Halloween, and we are wondering if this year, of all years, the mothers of our young citizens should not make a little extra effort to entertain their children in their own homes.

This "treat of pay" has become a perfect nuisance to the housewives. The children come by sixes and eights and each expects money or some treat.

In the past two or three years when fruit, candy, etc., were so hard to get, it made it doubly hard. If you give each child a nickel, it means two or three dollars which makes it a rather expensive evening.

If you don't pay they get out their soap and go to work. Most of our citizens have just had their windows cleaned for the next few months. It is such a task to find some one to do this and much more expensive than it was three or four years ago.

The astounding fact about last year's Halloween escapades was that the young women of our town did most of the damage.
 Please let us use "The Good Neighbor Policy" this year.

Sudden Death of Mr. Loehr

Conrad Loehr, who has been the janitor at St. Mary's Academy for the past thirty-one years, passed away in his sleep last Friday night in his room in the Academy. He was seventy-three years nine months and twelve days old at the time of his death.

Con was a genial and companionable man. Although never married he loved children and the pupils at St. Mary's thought the world of Con, for he was always doing something for them.
 Easy going and of even temper-ment Con was the friend of everyone, and his passing will be regretted by the Sisters and pupils of the Academy for he was always there when there was work to be done.

Con was born in Germany on January 7, 1872. Little is known of his family but he had two brothers in Germany, but whether they are still living no one knows.

The funeral was held from St.
 Patrick's Church last Monday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. Raymond Lisco officiating and burial in Calvary cemetery. St. Mary's pupils, from the higher grades attended the funeral in a body and members of the Senior Class were pallbearers.

Elmer Nuttleman, of Kansas City, Mo., arrived Tuesday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Glen Tomlinson.
