

Kids Govern OPA Office in Brooklyn for a Day

Photo shows the price panel in session, when the students of Midwood High school took over the operation of the Office of Price Administration's local rationing board in Brooklyn's Flatbush section for a day. For twelve hours the enterprising youngsters ran the rationing and price control machinery, with, of course a little expert supervision by a regular aide in interpreting some of the knottier problems.

Japanese Sidewalk Salesmen

Customers crowd around the sidewalk stands in the Ginza District in Tokyo, which is similar to New York's Fifth Avenue. Shopkeepers, their stores destroyed by bombs, set up their wares in the street, and carry on their business outside the wrecked buildings. In the background is the famous Jap Department Store, Takashimaya, where only two floors are now in use.

Wants to Cross Atlantic in Barrel

Because "It is inevitable that some day, someone will cross the Atlantic in a barrel," Mark Charlton, discharged Canadian army veteran, wants to do it first. He is shown with the barrel in which he plans to make the attempt.

Women's U. S. Softball Champions

The Jax Maids of New Orleans drove to the World Softball Championship to make it their third year in the last four that they have won the title. They won in 1942 and 1943. The bevy of beauties hammered out a win over the Toronto Crofton Club lassies by a score of 5 to 0, as Nina Korgan of the Jax allowed but two hits. Photo shows the Jax with their trophy.

Had Kenny Treatment

Mrs. John Rybolt, at home in Los Angeles, after a year of the Kenny Treatment for Polio, is shown as she greeted her children, Brian, 3, and Johnny, 6, while her husband looks on. Physicians say Mrs. Rybolt will be able to walk eventually with the aid of crutches.

Starved Allied Soldiers Freed

The physical condition of these two members of the British Royal artillery, is representative of thousands of Allied soldiers freed from Japanese prison camps by American troops. They are shown relaxing on the hanger deck of the USS Black Island, one of the liberation ships that has been set aside to see that former prisoners are rushed home.

Dickie Gives Toots a Pedicure

"Dickie," eight-month-old pet parakeet, perches atop her canine playmate, "Toots," six-months-old puppy, as they frolic on the rug in the home of their owner in Detroit. "Dickie" seems to be giving "Toots" a pedicure by the simple expedient of pecking at "Toots'" claw. This is a daily job which the parakeet has taken over for his pal.

Went Into Business for Himself

Nicholas Kochek, was given a gun and went into business for himself. He was given credit for knocking out more tanks and killing more Germans than many divisions, while he was AWOL and serving with the French underground. He is shown wearing the French beret. He said he deserted army as he did not like to peel potatoes. Court martial cleared him of charge.

Wake Hero Father And Proud Son

Lt. Col. James P. S. Devereux, hero of Wake Island, returned to Washington, D. C., and is shown with his eleven-year-old son, "Paddy" James Patrick, as they left the station. It was their first meeting in four years, during which time Colonel Devereux, a prisoner of the Japs was unable to send or receive word to his proud son.

Kachin Hero Home

Cloudless Skies
When Australia starts developing its infant film industry and decides to build a counterpart of Hollywood, it won't be able to set it up in central Australia. The weather's too dry there for film-making. Clouds needed for essential pictorial effects in the cattle-droving epic, "The Overlanders" were so rare that on one occasion they had to race 60 miles across a tableland to catch up with a herd of cattle and photograph them while the thin, fleeting clouds were still around.

Lean Fish
If lean fish is used for broiling or baking, brush generously with fat or french dressing.

SNAPPY FACTS about RUBBER

A man's social position in Java is said to be determined by the number of spare tires he carries on his car. The more spares, the greater the owner's prestige among the natives.

Fliers can breathe easily at altitudes of 80,000 feet in a pressurized strato-suit developed by B. F. Goodrich.

If one wants to open a tire store in Amsterdam, Holland, he must pass an examination demonstrating his proficiency as a bookkeeper and an executive.

B. F. Goodrich made and sold the first tires containing synthetic rubber in June, 1940.

Kidneys Must Work Well-

For You To Feel Well

24 hours every day, 7 days every week, never stopping, the kidneys filter waste matter from the blood.

If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove surplus fluid, excess acids and other waste matter that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole system is upset when kidneys fail to function properly.

Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns that something is wrong. You may suffer nagging backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains, getting up at night, swelling.

Why not try Doan's Pills? You will be using a medicine recommended the country over. Doan's stimulate the function of the kidneys and help them to flush out poisonous waste from the blood. They contain nothing harmful. Get Doan's today. Use with confidence. At all drug stores.
