MacArthur Reforms Japan's Cabinet

In more ways than one General MacArthur has reformed the Japanese cabinet. He removed most of the personnel and those he let stay, he reformed. They are shown as they were formally inducted into office on the grounds of the prime minister's residence in Tokyo. General MacArthur says they shall stay in office only so long as they co-operate.

Promises Defense Against the Atom

The Crosby Research foundation has announced that they have a solution for the atomic bomb. They need not know where the bomb is coming from. Their defense will prevent its arrival. Shown in the picture is one of the Crosby brothers and helper examining model jet automobile, one of the new products of the Crosby Research foundation, which aided atomic experiments.

From Small Orphans to Their Father

This is an orphan's grace, and judging from the expressions it should be a matter of top priority. These children are some of the 50 ward-orphaned in Dr. Barnard's home in Kelvedon, England. Grace before a meal is an important part of the children's training. Many of the English orphans are being aided by help sent from the United States.

DeGaulle Stays In

Gen. Charles de Gaulle is shown just before he was retained head of the French government, at the first election of the Fourth Republic. His party did not fare as well as the general.

Navy's Izaak Walton

"Skip" Parker, one of the experts at the navy's Seagate hospital, near New York's Concy Island, lends a helping hand—and teeth—to "Crip" Groves in preparing his tackle. "Crip" is an expert caster, even though he has to do it from crutches.

Canine Vet Uses Head

"Lucky" demonstrates why he was successful in helping his master, Roy Newman, of Chicago, instruct other canines in the art of war. "Lucky" understands more than 100 different commands and can and does carry all of them out when given.

President Escapes

President Isias Medina Angarita of Venezuela, who fled from his Miraflores residence before it was taken over by rebels in a military revolt against the government.

EIGHT cows who appear in Samuel Goldwyn's "The Kid From Brooklyn," which stars Danny Kaye, have inherited a beard that once belonged to Douglas Fairbanks. But not as a beard. They're all dolled up for the dairy maid number, in which they are assisted by the 1946 class of Goldwyn girls. The cows make their debut wearing pearl earrings, fancy hats, and artificial eyelashes. That's where the beard comes in. The property man tried stiff black paper, then pipe cleaners, with no luck. But the beard was perfect.

One appearance on the Edgar Bergen radio program was all that Anita Gordon needed to launch her on a career. Bergen signed the 15-year-old singer to a contract after her first program, and two days later 20th Century-Fox gave her a film contract.

Helmut Dantine's going to know picture-making from A to Z or know why. He's secured permission from Warner Bros. to sit in on all phases of the process in "The Man Who Died Twice," while awaiting his next acting assignment.

Betty Hutton got a pleasant surprise when she opened the door of her new and fancy portable dressing room on the set of "The Stork Club." In the corner stood a new bleached walnut piano, replacing the old upright that had been installed temporarily when the dressing room was unveiled. Paramount gave it to Betty so that she could rehearse her song numbers on the set during filming.

Lulu McConnell was a star of the theater in the days of Anna Held and Lillian Russell; now, on "I Pays to Be Ignorant," she's the most insulted woman in America—and loves it! She thought she was done when bronchitis ruined a good singing voice, but that croaky voice became one of her biggest assets. She'd retired when Tom Howard enlisted her for "Ignorant."

Phillip Terry headed for New York after finishing his role in "Georg White's Scandals," his third RK role. He's one of the few Hollywood players who got his theatrical schooling abroad in London, and touring the British provinces in stock. He's done all right in Hollywood—played romantic leads in "Music in America" and "Pan-Americana" at RKO and did "The Lost Week End" and "To Each His Own" at his home lot, Paramount. But an awful lot of movie-goers will just identify him as he's Joan Crawford's husband.

Producer Leo McCarey did a nice thing—picked 10 girls from the extra ranks in "The Bells of St. Mary's," to play the nuns in a parochial school, hoping that their scenes with Bing Crosby and Ingrid Bergman would start them on real screen careers.

Joan Crawford's new picture, "Mildred Pierce," is the kind that a lot of women are going to love. And it's a swell come-back for the valiant Miss Crawford; in her lexicon there's certainly no such word as "fail," no matter how bad the breaks.

We hear that Paramount has sworn affidavits to prove that the voice you'll hear as Dorothy Lamour's in "Masquerade in Mexico" is really hers. Seems that, instead of its being a contralto, as it's been for the last eight years, it's suddenly become an operatic high soprano, discovered by Director Mitchell Leisen. B flat used to be her limit; now, they say, she hits a D 10 notes higher.

ODDS AND ENDS—Hanley Stafford, "Daddy Higgins" of the "Baby Snooks Show," was originally asked by Fanny Brice to do a guest spot on the program—the "guest spot" will soon be rounding out its eighth year. . . . Dick Powell's happy about his new radio series, "Rogue's Gallery," except for one thing: he won't be able to vacation in South America with the new Mrs. Powell as he'd planned. . . . Ruth Brennan has been signed by Republic. . . . After being slapped by Teresa Wright and Rose Hobart and belabored with powder puffs by a bevy of beauties in "The Trouble With Women," Ray Milland thinks he can stand anything.

Hollywood Adds 'Atomic' Touch to Nation's Strikes

As all productions from Hollywood must no longer be considered colossal but "atomic," the strikers at the motion picture plants have led the way in proving to the world that they can put on an "atomic" strike. Shown above were sit-down strikers who blocked the main entrance to Warner Bros., Burbank, during the height of their strike. Deputy sheriffs who did not approve of the blockade are shown removing some of the strikers from the entrance.

Honolulu Now Has Largest Airport in the World

One of the first photos of the John Rodgers airport in Honolulu to be released since before the war. The largest in the world, the airport is truly the crossroads of the Pacific, and it is here that Hawaiians will greet many of the delegates to the United Nations organization if their proposal to the Preparations committee, meeting in London, to make Hawaii permanent UNO headquarters is accepted.

They're Here Today . . . Gone Tomorrow

If you are mentally agile, perhaps you can keep up with the Argentine situation. Here is Vice Adm. Hector Mernengo Lima, who became minister of the navy in the coup which ousted Vice Pres. Juan Peron for a short time. When Peron returned to office the admiral was arrested.

Led Kachin Rangers

Capt. Charles Coussoule, who was a leader of the famed Kachin Rangers who snaked through swampy Burma jungles to beat the Japs at their own game. He has returned to his home at Indiana, Pa.

Women's U. S. Softball Champions

The Jax maids of New Orleans, who drove to the U. S. softball championship to make it the third year in the last four that they have won. They won in 1942 and 1943. The bevy of beauties hammered out a win over the Toronto club, also winning the title of world's champions. Nine Korgan of the Jax allowed but two hits by the Toronto lassies.

From Beat to Opera

Ian Cosman, Manhattan patrolman, who made his operatic debut as Turiddu in "Cavalleria Rusticana," with the New York City Opera company. He has been on the force seven years.
