NOTICE OF HEARING
 IN THE COUNTY COURT OF HOLT COUNTY, NEBRASKA
 Probate No. _____
 In the Matter of the Estate of J. E. BROWN, Deceased.
 TO: All Persons Interested in said Estate, both Creditors and Heirs:
 You are hereby notified that on the 30th day of November, A. D., 1945, Daisy Howe Umberger, petitioner, filed her petition in the above matter, setting forth among other things that J. E. Brown, who was also known as Jane E. Brown, departed this life intestate on the 11th day of May, 1912, a citizen and inhabitant of Rural Retreat, Virginia; that she died seized and possessed of the following described real estate, to-wit: An undivided one-half interest in the South Half of the Northeast Quarter (S $\frac{1}{2}$ NE $\frac{1}{4}$), the Southeast Quarter of the Northwest Quarter (SE $\frac{1}{4}$ NW $\frac{1}{4}$), and the Northwest Quarter of the Southeast Quarter (NW $\frac{1}{4}$ SE $\frac{1}{4}$) of Section One (1), in Township Twenty-five (25), North, Range Fourteen (14), West of the 6th P. M., in Holt County, Nebraska; that she left her surviving as her sole and only heirs at law her children, James M. Brown and Alice Brown Howe; that petitioner, Daisy Howe Umberger, is the owner of an undivided one-half interest in the above described real estate, having derived title thereto by inheritance from the heirs of the deceased J. E. Brown. That the prayer of said petition is that the Court may find and determine the time of the death of the decedent, J. E. Brown; that Jane E. Brown and the same person; that she died intestate a resident and citizen of Rural Retreat, Virginia; may find and determine the heirs of said deceased and their degree of kinship; may find and determine the right of descent of the real property of which she died seized; that further administration of this said estate may be dispensed with; that there is no inheritance tax, state or federal, due from this said estate or the heirs thereof, and that there are no debts against said estate, and that the claims of all creditors are barred, and for such other and further relief as may be just and equitable.

That said matter is set for hearing before the County Court of Holt County, Nebraska, in the County Court Room in the Court House in the City of O'Neill, Nebraska, on the 27th day of December, A. D., 1945, at the hour of ten o'clock A. M., and that if you fail to appear at said time and place to contest said petition, the Court may grant the prayer thereof.
 Dated this 30th day of November, A. D., 1945.

BRITTELL-MACE
 Miss Deloris Brittell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brittell of Chambers, and Arnie Mace, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnie Mace, Sr., of O'Neill, were united in marriage Wednesday, December 12, by Judge Reimer of O'Neill.
 They were attended by Mrs. Wm. Rittedbusch, sister of the groom, and Dewey Brittell, brother of the bride.
 The bride wore a dove gray pen stripe dress suit with black accessories and her jewelry was a sweetheart pin locket and necklace to match a gift from the groom.
 The maid of honor wore a blue dress with black accessories. The best man was dressed in a brown business suit. The groom wore his army uniform.
 The bride graduated from the Chambers High School with the class of '44. Since then she has been employed, but has spent the last few months at home.
 The groom has just received his discharge from serving three and a half years in the army, of which eighteen months were spent in the C. B. I. theater.

 Dining habits of Americans have changed since the late 1860s. No longer do tables groan under a large variety of rich food. Instead, simplicity and comfort mark America's dining habits. Today "North Western" diners serve the finest food in the land, deliciously prepared. Dining cars are wide-windowed and luxurious, with an atmosphere conducive to good living... they accent the pleasure of train travel.

How will you have YOUR VENISON STEAK?
 Just after the close of the Civil war far-seeing officials of the Chicago and North Western had a happy thought—"Why not serve meals on the Overland Route journey from Chicago to San Francisco?"
 Up to that time a cross-country train ride was high adventure, and operating transcontinental dining cars was considered out of the question. But the cars were built, richly ornate and splendidly lighted by ceiling-suspended oil lamps.
 And the menus were a gourmet's delight! A choice of plover, quail, pheasant, snipe and even venison steak was offered!

The Martez Club entertained at their annual Christmas Party at the Golden Hotel last Tuesday evening with a dinner at 7:00 o'clock and then cards and exchange of gifts. High score gifts were nylon hose and the following ladies won high score: Mrs. Helen Berrigan, Atkinson, Mrs. Helen Mullen, Scribner, Mrs. H. J. Birmingham, Mrs. Mabel McKenna and Mrs. P. B. Harty.
 After about four years in the army Clyde McKenzie returned home last Sunday, with an honorable discharge in his pocket. Mrs. McKenzie and daughter, Patricia, met him in Omaha and came home with him. Clyde says it seems grand to be in civilian clothing again.
 As we are ready to go to press we are handed a list of discharged soldiers that will appear in our next issue.

Dear Mr. Cronin:
 During this, the Christmas season, it is my hearty desire to wish everyone in this community the best in Christmas and New Year greetings through the columns of The Frontier.
 As we joined together to bring peace to the world, let us clasp hands to face the future together. That is my Christmas greeting and wish to my fellow Nebraskans. Best wishes always!
