O'NEILL HATCHERY

ONEILL HOG MARKET

Mr. J. L. Purden is buying hogs every Saturday at the former O'Neill Livestock Market between the hours of 9 A. M. and 5 o'clock. Call Telephone No. 2 O'Neill any time after 9 A. M. Saturday and get his bid. Bought 4 carloads last Saturday at ceiling prices for all but 15 head of extreme heavies. With the packing industry again in production, he will have unlimited orders for all weights of fat hogs, including packing sows.

ATKINSON LIVESTOCK MARKET

Sold 1490 cattle and 769 hogs last Tuesday. Demands for all classes of cattle "was overwhelming" with prices continuing to move higher. Choice steers of all weights sold between 14.00 to 15.50, while medium kinds brought from 12.50 to 13.75 a hundred. Best heifer calves from 14.00 to 15.00, some extremely light weights at 17.00 a hundred. The cow market was steady to higher on all fat and warmed up kinds as well as canners and cutters. A long string of breeding cows brought from $109 to $125 a head.

Next Auction will be on Tuesday, Feb. 5
