about the heirlooms they were displaying. About half of the members came dressed in clothes of yesterday, and the judges had difficulty in deciding to whom the first prize should be awarded. Mrs. Joe Winkler was finally given the honor. An outstanding heirloom was a red-velvet suit, complete with gold braid, white vest, black-buckle shoes, and light stockings, worn by Edward Price.

Phyllis Johnson Is Bride of Donald Loy

The pretty wedding of Miss Phyllis Johnson and Donald Loy was solemnized in the Methodist church Sunday at 3 p.m., before a large number of friends and relatives. Rev. Lloyd Mullis, officiated. The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a suit of blue with white accessories. Her jewelry consisted of a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and a pin and earring set, a gift of her brother, Roy, sent from Japan for the occasion. The bride carried the same handkerchief that the bridegroom's mother carried at her wedding nearly 40 years ago.

Miss Helen Johnson, cousin of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly," and "Ah! Sweet Mystery of Life." A. E. Bowen accompanied at the piano and played the wedding march. Miss Audrey Reimer had charge of the guestbook. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Johnson, has taught in the rural schools, of Holt county the past two years. The bridegroom, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. David Loy, served in the armed forces, having been discharged in December. The young couple will reside in O'Neill.

Country Club Ladies Hold Annual Tea

The ladies of the Country club held their annual tea Wednesday at the Golden hotel. There were not as many present as expected. The tables were decorated with silver candel holders and lavender candles.

A JUNE 1ST BRIDE

In one of the most charming weddings of the year, Miss Constance Biglin (above), a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Biglin, O'Neill, exchanged nuptial vows with Dale French, son of Dr. and Mrs. O. W.

French, also of this city. The event took place June 1 in St. Patrick's Catholic church here, with Rt. Rev. J. G. McNamara officiating. The couple will reside in Lincoln. —O'Neill Photo Co.

A RECENT BRIDE

A recent bride here was Miss Bernadine Langar (above), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Langar. On May 8 she became the bride of Raymond Schneider, son of Mrs. Julius Schneider, at St. Patrick's Catholic church here. The newlyweds are residing in O'Neill. —O'Neill Photo Co.

Elaine Adams, Robert Turner Exchange Vows

CHAMBERS—Miss Elaine Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Adams and Robert Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Turner, all of Chambers, were united in marriage at the Baptist church here Sunday, at 8 a. m. Rev. McElheron performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives.

The bride, who was attired in a floor-length gown of white, was attended by her sister, Miss Carolyn Adams.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Turner graduated from Chambers high school in 1943. Mr. Turner has recently been separated from the armed service, having served in the European theater.

Mrs. Turner has been attending the Sioux Falls, S.D., business college the past year.
