

Omahan Retains Golfing Crown

Dr. Paul W. Tipton Edges Alan Mongerson 3-2 in Title Match

95 GOLFERS ENTERED

Dr. Paul W. Tipton, of Omaha, the defending champion, bested 94 other competitors in the County club's open golf tourney here this week, and successfully retained his crown. Sloshing through most of the tournament under wraps for protection from rain and cold, Tipton shot steady, consistent golf all the way.

He defeated Alan Mongerson, of Newman Grove, 3-2 in the championship flight play Tuesday, defying the elements with a first round par.

In the consolation match of the championship flight, Don Bridge, of Norfolk, nipped Jule Warner, also of Norfolk, one-up.

The winner of the first flight will not be determined until Sunday when Pat Harty and Dr. L. A. Burgess, both of O'Neill, settle their account which was rained out.

Ninety-five golfers were entered in the meet, which began early Sunday and continued through Monday and Tuesday despite unfavorable golfing weather.

Ventriloquist Entertains

The social highlight of the tourney was a dance at the clubhouse Monday night. Robert ("Bob") Evans, of Chicago, a native O'Neillite and now a professional entertainer, was featured in a ventriloquist act.

Among the out-of-towners here for the tourney were:

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Wagner, Dr. and Mrs. Paul W. Tipton, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Sharrar, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Krauth, all of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. James McNally, of Humphrey; George Lightner, of St. Edwards; Gaus Cadwell, Albion; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cronin, of Grand Island; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Horn, Ainsworth; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jungman, Marvin Miller, all of Atkinson; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Buelow, of Racine, Wis.; Alan Mongerson, of Newman Grove; Juel Warner, Don Bridge, and Bill Phillips, all of Norfolk.

Mercury Hits New High--103; Rain Brings Relief from Heat

Jupiter Pluvius opened the sky valves Monday and let it rain, let it rain.

Intermittent showers that continued throughout Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday netted 1.62 inches of welcomed moisture.

The rain, accompanied by cooling winds that moved in from Canada, brought relief from a torrid heat wave which held the midwest in its grip over the weekend. A new high for the season was recorded Saturday afternoon, when the thermometer registered 103 here. At the same time, Norfolk and Sioux City reported 106 readings; Omaha and Lincoln, 105.

The mercury skidded from the season's high of 103 to 46 three days later.

Torrential rains visited some sections of the state, but in this vicinity the fall was "made-to-order." Most of the moisture soaked into the ground because

ERRORS CAUSE INDEES' DOWNFALL

9 O'Neill Bobbles Help Ainsworth Win 8-4; Indees' First Loss

The high-riding O'Neill Independents, victors in their first five baseball games of the season, Sunday suffered their first reversal at Ainsworth, 8-4. Nine O'Neill errors, several of which occurred at crucial moments, cost the Indees the game. Two errors were charged against Manager Dick Tomlinson, who, for the first time this season, had difficulty handling the chores on third.

O'Neill outthit Ainsworth 9-4, including a homerun by the Indees' catcher, Zane Cole, who, in addition, turned in an excellent ball game.

There was some confusion on both sides because of the color similarity in the uniforms.

The Atkinson Legion blanked the Ainsworth Legion 12-0 in a seven-inning preliminary.

ACCIDENT VICTIM BURIED MONDAY

Funeral Rites at Inman for John J. Young, 41, State Employee

INMAN—Funeral services were conducted here Monday for John J. Young, 41, who was killed late Thursday as a result of an automobile-truck collision on highway 20, four miles east of Atkinson. The rites were held at 2 p.m. in the Methodist church, with Rev. E. B. Maxcy, church pastor, officiating. Burial was in the Inman cemetery. A large crowd, including many relatives, attended the services.

Young, a state highway employee for the past five years, was driving a state-owned maintenance truck, enroute to O'Neill, when the truck side-swiped an automobile being driven by James Jardee, of Stuart. Young was thrown out of the truck and pinned beneath the cab. He is believed to have been killed instantly. Jardee was uninjured.

County Attorney J.D. Cronin, of O'Neill, said there would be no inquest. The body was taken to the Biglin Brothers mortuary in O'Neill. Young is survived by his wife, Myrtle; his mother, Mrs. Anna Young; two brothers, Charles, of Ewing, and Marvin, of Many, La.; two sisters, Mrs. Max Jeffers, of Chambers, and Mrs. Arthur Kropp, of Ewing. One son, Laurence LeRoy, died on January 3, 1939.

Young was born on October 26, 1904, at Creighton, a son of the late William H. Young. He spent most of his life in the vicinity of Page, Ewing and Inman. Mr. and Mrs. Young were married in O'Neill on July 12, 1930. His wife was formerly Myrtle E. Lately, of Gordon.

Father Killed in 1940

Young's father was fatally injured in an automobile accident two miles east of O'Neill on March 18, 1940. He was riding in an auto driven by John. While attempting to pass a truck, the machine collided with an oncoming car, driven by a Stuart minister. The elder Mr. Young died two days later in an O'Neill hospital, having never recovered consciousness.

Among the out-of-town relatives attending the funeral services were: Marvin Young, Many, La.; Art Johnson, of Sioux City; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Buckley, of Sioux City; Mr. and Mrs. A. Abbenhaus, of Bloomfield; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Albrecht and family, of Creighton; Mr. and Mrs. Abbenhaus, of Ainsworth; M. J. Abbenhaus, of Bassett; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Scott, of Atkinson; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Wagner, of Norfolk; Miss Dorothy Wagner, of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lately, of Gordon; William Lately, of Gordon; Mr. and Mrs. Lurcie Jay, of Gordon; Mr. and Mrs. Oral Lately, of Gordon; Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Kritel, of Fairfax, S. D.; Earn Wilson, of Stuart, and Lial Wilson, of Stuart.

Clarence W. Stuart, 51, of Walthill, Admits Inman Burglary

ARRESTED MONDAY

Clarence W. Stuart, 51, of Walthill, Wednesday was sentenced to two years in the Nebraska state penitentiary on burglary charges filed in district court here by County Attorney Julius D. Cronin. The sentence was passed by District Judge D. R. Mounts.

Stuart, who has prison records in both Nebraska and Iowa, was arrested in Norfolk Monday by Norfolk police and state highway patrolmen. Brought to the Holt county jail here, Stuart admitted burglarizing the Northwestern railway station at Inman on May 31, and taking one can of cream.

Railroad officials reported the theft of six cans of cream the same night. In addition, cream thefts have occurred frequently in northeastern Nebraska during recent weeks, with incidents reported at Wisner, Emerson, and other points. Stuart, however, admitted participation in only the Inman crime.

Stuart told the court that he served one term in the Nebraska penitentiary for a burglary committed at Walthill, and another term in the Iowa state penitentiary for an offense at Orange City, Ia.

A married man, Stuart is the father of two sons, both of whom were in the service. One was a prisoner of war.

Program Given On Father's Day

CHAMBERS—Father's day was observed in the Baptist church here at the Sunday morning service with a program arranged by the women of the church. Music numbers, including solos, duets and trios, and readings were included.
