

Mary Miles a Bride Here Saturday

Miss Mary Miles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Miles, and Robert Lowery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lowery, were married at 8 a. m. Saturday in the rectory at St. Patrick's Catholic church here, with Rev. R. J. Lisco officiating.

The bride wore a navy blue suit with matching accessories, and a corsage of white gardenias. Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bohn, the bride's sister and brother-in-law. Mrs. Bohn wore a fuchsia suit.

A wedding breakfast was held at the M. M. cafe after the ceremony, followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

The newlyweds will reside in O'Neill. The bride was graduated from St. Mary's Academy in 1944, and the bridegroom, who was recently separated from the service, graduated from O'Neill public school.

Miss Rubeck Weds Returned Veteran

Miss Elaine Bernadine Rubeck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rubeck, and Milford Henry Coats, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Coats, were united in marriage at 1:30 p. m., June 12 in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rubeck, 12 miles northeast of O'Neill.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Lloyd Mullis, of O'Neill. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white-satin gown with fitted bodice and sweetheart neckline. She wore a three-strand pearl necklace which was a gift from the bride's mother. Her finger-tip veil of net edged in lace was held in place by a seed pearl tiara. She carried a bouquet of red roses and pink carnations.

The flower girl was Ivalyn Johnson, niece of the bride. She carried a basket of roses and fern. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, sister and brother-in-law of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied on the piano by Mrs. John Honeywell, who also played the wedding march.

The bridesmaid, Mrs. Elwin Rubeck, sister-in-law of the bride, wore a gown of light blue taffeta. Her corsage was white carnations, and she wore white flowers in her hair.

The bestman was Calvin Coats, brother of the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony a luncheon was served for relatives and a few friends.

The bride's table was centered by a three-tiered wedding cake, decorated in white and pink roses, with a miniature bride and bridegroom. The luncheon was served by Mrs. Carl Pfuil and Mrs. Lyle Eppenbach.

The bridegroom was recently discharged from U. S. Army after 32 months, 19 of which were spent in intelligence work in the 104th Infantry division in the European theater.

Out-of-towns guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Johnson, of Wakefield; Calvin Coats, of Kingsley, Ia., and Mr. and Mrs. John Honeywell, of Chambers.

Bonnie Hynes Weds Atkinson Man

Miss Bonnie Hynes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Hynes, of O'Neill, and Louis Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Brown, of Atkinson, were married in St. Patrick's Catholic church here at 9 a. m. Saturday, with Rt. Rev. J. G. McNamara performing the ceremony.

The bride wore a floor-length white dress.

The bridesmaid was Miss Maryanne Brindi, of Valentine, who wore a light-blue floor-length dress.

Attending the bridegroom was John Miller, of Atkinson. Regina Hynes, a sister of the bride, was the ring-bearer, and she was dressed in a white-satin formal.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served in the M & M cafe, and a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents during the afternoon.

The couple will reside in Atkinson.

Dragonwyck, high on a hill, is a house of hate, presided over by Vincent Price, patron of a fabulous estate, whose mind nurtures evil spirits of greed and scheming. To this home of subversive currents comes Gene Tierney, fresh from the farm as companion to the young unloved daughter. Price is the first aristocrat she has ever seen and naturally the innocent, imaginative lass falls in love with him. Vincent Price gives a masterful portrayal of the decadent, power-mad monarch, and Gene Tierney is lovely as the winsome idealist. Walter Huston and Ann Rye are Gene's parents.

A Million More TELEPHONES in RURAL HOMES

Plans of the Bell System to extend and improve farm telephone service call for providing a million more families in rural areas with telephones within three to five years. This wide-range program will cost about $100,000,000.

This continues and expands a rural program carried on for a number of years, until the war cut down its pace. Since the depression of the mid-1930's, about half a million additional farm telephones have been installed. Nearly 400,000 have been added since 1940.
