Miss Kathryn Kunz a Bride at Stuart

EMMET — The St. Boniface Catholic church at Stuart was the scene of a pretty wedding on Monday when Miss Kathryn Kunz, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kunz, of Stuart, became the bride of Charles Winkler, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Winkler, of Emmet. The single-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. John Hilt, church pastor.

The bride was attired in a floor-length gown of white net over slipper satin, with fitted bodice, long sleeves tapering at the wrist, and a sweetheart neckline. She carried a bouquet of white gladiolus. Her only jewelry was a gold chain and jewel, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Joan Kunz was her sister's only attendant. She wore a floor-length gown of aqua net over satin, and a halo-open crown hat of pleated aqua net. Peach gladiolus made up her bouquet. Raymond Winkler acted as bestman for his brother. Both men wore dark suits with white carnation boutonniere.

Immediately following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the bridal couple and attendants at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kramer in Stuart.

A 1 p.m. wedding dinner was served at the bride's home to the immediate relatives and the following guests: Rev. Hilt; Rev. Voclav Kovar, of Deloit; Rev. John O'Brien, of Emmet; and Miss Kate Kunz, of Valentine.

The couple entertained their friends at a dance Monday at the Crystal ballroom in Atkinson. Mr. and Mrs. Winkler will make their home on a farm near Venus.
