"Saratoga Trunk"
Ingrid Bergman is, without dispute, one of the finest actresses on the screen today. Her Clio literally lifts the story of "Saratoga Trunk" into something fascinating to behold. In fact, it's Bergman and Gary Cooper at his best who override the rather divided story of a girl who seeks to avenge her unwed mother by becoming everything her mother wasn't. Emotional, common, cunning, loving and beautiful Clio arrives in New Orleans from Paris to humiliate her father's aristocrat family, meets Gary Cooper, a Texas cowboy, moves on to Saratoga Springs with the avowed purpose of renouncing Gary for a marriage of wealth and position.

Mrs. H. L. Lindberg entertained the Merry Mix Club Tuesday. A 1:30 p. m., dessert lunch was served and the remainder of the afternoon was spent playing bridge.

Dorothy Liewer Bride at Butte
A quiet wedding took place Monday morning in the St. Peter and Pauls Catholic church at Butte. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Werthman, at which time Miss Dorothy Liewer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Liewer, became the bride of Duane S. Gray, son of Mrs. Evelyn Gray, of Page.
The bride wore a navy blue dress with white accessories, and a corsage of pink and white roses. She was attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ed Liewer.
The bridegroom was attended by Ed Liewer, brother of the bride.
The bride graduated from Chadron Teachers' College, taught school in the Page vicinity and during the last few years was a clerical employee of United States Airlines in Cheyenne, Wyo., and Denver.
The bridegroom attended the University of Nebraska before entering the armed forces, where he served four years, three of which were spent over seas. Since being released from the army he has completed a course in agriculture at the University

Miss Mardell Butts Is Chambers Bride
St. Paul's Lutheran church at Chambers was the scene of a lovely wedding on Sunday at 8 p. m., when Miss Mardell Butts, second daughter of Mrs. Adeleen Butts, became the bride of Eugene Hoerle, of Ewing. Rev. L. A. Dale officiated.
The bride, a graduate of the Chambers high school in 1944, chose a gown of white nylon, with a full net-covered skirt. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a dainty crown of beaded pearls. She carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses. Miss Lela Rothchild, of Chambers, acted as maid of honor.
Miss Mary Lou Butts, sister of the bride, and Miss Jo Ellen Hoerle, niece of the bridegroom, acted as bridesmaids.
Marvin Hoerle, nephew of the bridegroom served as best man.

Chambers Couple Weds At St. Paul's Church
A pretty June wedding was that of Miss Luetta Lenz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Lenz, of Chambers, and Donald L. Dankert, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dankert, also of Chambers. The event took place at 2 p. m., June 27, at St. Paul's Lutheran church with Rev. L. A. Dale, pastor, performing a double ring ceremony.
The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, ascended the altar, where she was met by the bridegroom and his attendant, Victor O. Dankert his brother.
