Miss Harty a Bride Here Today

Miss Mary Genevieve Harty, daughter of Mrs. W. H. Harty, became the bride of Kevin K. Kocina, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kocina, of Creighton, at a nuptial mass at St. Patrick's Catholic church here today (Thursday) at 9 a.m. Rt. Rev. J. G. McNamara officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, James B. Harty, of O'Neill. Miss Myrthalene Kocina, sister of the bridegroom, was maid-of-honor and Miss Helen Harty, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid.

The bride wore a gray wool dress, red coat and black accessories as her going away outfit. She also wore a gardenia corsage. After a trip to Denver and Colorado Springs, Colo., the couple will reside in Creighton.

The bridegroom, who is associated with his father in the implement business, served three and one-half years in the Navy. The bride was secretary in a law firm in Chicago for four years.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster O. Roberts of Evanston, Ill., were among the out-of-town guests at the wedding.

Bride-Elect Honored in 2 Showers

Miss Mary Harty was honored at two prenuptial showers during the week. Mrs. C. V. Sullivan was hostess to a kitchen shower Friday; Mrs. H. J. Birmingham gave a "soap" shower Tuesday.

Fourteen members of the bride-elect's family and relatives were present Wednesday evening when Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Harty honored Miss Harty at a prenuptial dinner in the M & M cafe.

The bride was attended by Miss Corinne Kubitschek, a sister of the bridegroom. Larry Kearns, a brother of the bride, served as best man.

The bride was gowned in an aqua-wool, long-sleeved dress and had brown accessories. She wore a corsage of peach colored flowers and carried a white prayer book and white rosary beads.

The honor attendant wore a tan, long-sleeved dress and had brown accessories. Her corsage was made of coral colored flowers. She also carried a white prayer book and white rosary beads.

A breakfast was held after the ceremony for the immediate families and later, a breakfast for 60 was held in the church basement.

The couple departed for a wedding trip to the Black Hills. Upon their return they will reside in Omaha, where Mr. Kubitschek will continue his studies at Creighton university.

They met while they were serving in the European theater of operations during World War II. The bride was a first lieutenant in the Army Nurse corps, and the bridegroom was a captain in the Lightning infantry division. They both served in Belgium and Germany.

Robert Lansworth, of York, spent the weekend at the Aaron Boshart home. His son, Leo, who has spent the summer at the Boshart home, returned with him.
