Miss Helen Toy Bride of Dakotan

Miss Helen Toy, daughter of Mrs. Sophie Toy, of O'Neill, was married here at 2:30 p.m. Sunday to Leslie A. Grim, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie E. Grim, of Wagner, S. D.

Astors and roses decorated the Toy home where the wedding was held. Rev. Kenneth J. Scott, of O'Neill, performed the ceremony. The bride was attired in a gold wool suit, and she wore a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Edward Swanson, sister of the bride, as matron of honor, was dressed in a gold wool suit, and she wore a corsage of talisman roses. The bridegroom was attended by Anton Toy, Jr.

The bride attended the University of Nebraska and has been teaching in the Cheyenne, Wyo., schools. Mr. Grim is a graduate of the South Dakota School of Mines and has done graduate work at the University of Pittsburgh. He is now employed as an electrical engineer with the bureau of reclamation.

Out-of-town guests included the bridegroom's parents and Leo Grim, of Wagner; Miss Charlotte Gruber, of Seward; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Swanson and son, Jerry, of Herman, and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Toy, of Lincoln.

The couple will reside in Denver, Colo.

Velda Gallagher Weds Here Monday

Mrs. Velda Gallagher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Kemper, of Page, and George Winkler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Casper Winkler, of Atkinson, were married at 9 a.m. Monday in St. Patrick's church at O'Neill. Rev. R. J. Lisco performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride chose for her wedding a grey suit of gabardine with black accessories. She wore a corsage of pink roses.

Her attendant, Mrs. Edward Etherton, sister of the bridegroom, wore a lime green suit with black accessories. Her corsage was also pink roses.

The bridegroom wore a grey-striped suit and his attendant, Edward Etherton, also wore a grey-striped suit. Both wore carnation boutonnières.

The nuptial mass was played by Sister M. Flores and Miss Kathleen Flood sang.

After the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served to the immediate families and guests at the M & M cafe.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Winkler will make their home on a farm near Tilden.
