O'Neill, Nebraska, May 29, 1946, 1:00 p.m.

Holt County Board of Supervisors met as per adjournment. All members present.

Meeting called to order by the Chairman. Following Road Petition signed by Paul Young & 20 other interested persons was read. This Petition asked to have the road commencing two miles South of Opportunity between Sections 16 & 21, running 4 miles East to SE corner of Section 13, thence 2 miles North, then 3 miles East to SE corner of Section 4, then 1 mile North to County Road No. 343, be designated a County road. Upon motion this Petition was tabled.

RESOLUTION WHEREAS, Lots 9 and 10, in Block 19 of the Village of Page, in Holt County, Nebraska, was owned by R. D. Williams, V. E. Hunter, Otto Terrill, Walter Schneider and M. E. Geidi as Trustees for the Gospel Mission Society of Page, Nebraska, a religious institution, for the years 1931 to 1935, inclusive; and

WHEREAS, said property was owned by said religious society and used for church purposes during the years above referred to; and

WHEREAS, said property was listed for taxation and assessed for the years above described as being the property of R. D. Williams, et al, as individuals, where, in truth and in fact such property was held by said persons as Trustees for said religious society and church, and during said years was used by said religious society for religious purposes;

WHEREAS, L. G. Gillespie, the County Assessor of Holt County, Nebraska, has certified to this Board that said property was wrongfully assessed for said above years to such individuals, and that for such years said property was the actual property of said religious society and was used by said religious society during such years for church purposes.

NOW, THEREFORE, I MOVE YOU that the assessment of the above described property for the years 1931 to 1935, inclusive, be canceled, and the taxes assessed against said property stricken from the tax records of Holt County, Nebraska, for the reason that during said years said property was church property used for religious purposes.

Motion by Collins, seconded by Wulf, that the above Resolution be adopted. Motion carried and the Chairman ordered the above taxes stricken from the records.

Motion by Hubbard, seconded by Collins that J. Ed Hancock be named the Budget Director.

The Petition of Joseph McDonald for a tax refund was read at this time. Motion was made by Collins, seconded by Hubbard
