Miss Slaymaker a Bride Here Tuesday

Miss Gleendean Slaymaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sloymaker, of Atkinson, became bride of Joseph Jareske, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jareske, sr., here Tuesday at 9 a. m. at St. Patrick's Catholic church. Rev. R. J. Lisco, officiated in the double-ring ceremony, which was followed by a nuptial mass.

The bride, a graduate of Atkinson high school, taught near Omaha the past year, while the bridegroom, who attended O'Neill high school, has been farming with his father for the past five years.

The bride was attired in a white gown fashioned with tight satin bodice, a sweetheart neckline trimmed with lace, and a full marquisette skirt and train. Her fingertip veil was trimmed with lace, and fell from a high crown, which was decorated with silver sequins she carried a bouquet of white carnations and a crystal rosary, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Mary Helen Martin was maid-of-honor. She wore a pink veil, and she also carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The bridegroom and his attendant, Robert Yantzi, wore brown suits.

Sharon Kay Miller, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. The mothers of the couple wore dark suits.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the M & M cafe. The breakfast table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

The couple went to the Black Hills for their wedding trip. Upon their return they will reside on a farm east of O'Neill.
