

Eagles Claw Out 19-0 Win Over Bassett

Both Teams Sluggish, Spectators Swelter as Sun Bears Down

The O'Neill Eagles soared to a 19-0 triumph over the Bassett Tigers Friday afternoon on the Bassett grid.

The Eagles and Ol' Sol collaborated in turning on the heat. Sol worked all afternoon to the disadvantage of both teams, but the Eagles clawed out a counter in the second period, and from then on the outcome was never questioned. Even the spectators sweltered as the mercury rose to the high 80s.

Both machines were sluggish and listless during the opening stanza. The Tigers pounced on an O'Neill fumble on O'Neill's 8, but could not capitalize on the break. The short-lived threat ended on the O'Neill 20, Bassett having suffered two yardage losses, and then losing the ball on a fumble.

Early in the second stanza, Halfback Dick Tibbetts hustled the ball 55 yards in returning a punt to Bassett's 20. In a short series of plays, Fullback Ray Calkins squirmed through to score from the 6.

The second O'Neill counter came early in the fourth. After a sustained 50-yard drive, Tibbetts skirted end from the 9 to score.

The third marker came several minutes later after a 65-yard drive. Halfback Dick Hungerford skirted his own left end from the 20 to score standing up.

Tackles Hermie Osborne and Ardell Bright sparkled on the defensive for Coach F. E. Saindon's crew.

Ewing Set for O'Neill Go

EWING — Coach Marvin Miller's Ewing Tigers, with two wins and one defeat, will be ready Friday night for the undefeated O'Neill Eagles. The Tigers traditionally enjoy preying on the upriver rivals and Friday's affair has all the earmarks of an interesting fracas.

Ewing dumped Neligh 7-0 in the season's opener, dropped a 6-13 decision to Stuart in the second game, and trampled Elgin 12-0 in the third contest.

Saindon's Crew to Be at Peak Strength

The Eagles will be at peak strength for the Ewing tilt Friday night, Coach F. E. Saindon of O'Neill high school said following Wednesday's workout. The Eagles sailed through the first two games and the practice sessions thus far without a serious injury.

The starting whistle will be sounded at 8 p. m.

EWING BLANKS ELGIN 12-0

EWING — The Ewing Tigers blanked Elgin 12-0 here Friday night before a large crowd. Both Ewing counters resulted from end sweeps, one in the second quarter and the other in the third.

Williamson and Lampert suffered leg and rib injuries.

CHAMBERS NIPS WOLBACH 14-6

CHAMBERS — The Chambers high gridders flashed plenty of offensive Friday to whip Wolbach 14-6. Chambers scored in both the first and third stanzas.

The big Wolbach line gave the Holt countyans trouble all afternoon. Cooke continued to stand out in the Chambers backfield. Chambers entertains Butte today (Thursday).

CARDS HELP IN HOMECOMING

Face Sacred Heart at Norfolk Tonight in Special Event

The St. Mary's Cardinals, if they have their way, will dampen the homecoming festivities for Sacred Heart at Norfolk tonight (Thursday) as the two six-man grid teams clash in the day's main attraction. The opening whistle is scheduled for 8 p. m. under the lights in Norfolk athletic park.

Rev. R. J. Lisco's Cards will be at full-strength for the go, he said today. Halfback Jerry Tomjack, Halfback Dick McNichols, and Center Ed Hynes, all on the shelf last week, are back in condition.

The Sacred Heart Knights this season got off to a good start in six-man grid warfare in the first attempt for the Norfolk academy. The Omaha World-Herald Tuesday ranked the Norfolk eighth in the state.

The 40-piece St. Mary's band under the direction of Ira George, will drum up pregame enthusiasm by parading Norfolk's Madison avenue at 7 p. m.

The tilt has been dubbed in Norfolk "The Battle of Erin." Between halves Sacred Heart's homecoming queen will be crowned.

A large number of St. Mary's fans prepared early today to lend moral support to the Cards by being present at Norfolk.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh
Bert Childers and the Melon Patch
Bert Childers put an ad in the Clarion the other day. Here's what it said:
"Planted more melons than I can eat this year. Stop by and pick as many as you want. All free."
As you can guess, plenty of folks sent their kids over and plenty of the parents came too. Stripped Bert's melon patch in no time. And as they went away, Bert treated the kids to lemonade, and offered the grownups a glass of ice-cold sparkling beer.
Naturally it puzzled some folks... but Bert explains: "It gives me a kick to share things when I can afford to—whether it's the melons, or the lemonade, or beer. I guess I just like to indulge my whims."
From where I sit, if we had more "self-indulgent" people like Bert—who believe in share and share alike, live and let live, this tired world would be a whole lot better off!
