ON WAR'S WINNING SIDE—BUT THEIR BATTLE IS NOT OVER ... Greece, which was on the Allied side in the war, is suffering just as much, if not more, than former enemy countries who were on the losing side. Typical of the little people—the common or average citizen—who are the real sufferers are these citizens at Kanalia, Greece. Starting from the ground up, in a destroyed city, they are building a new home without money and suitable material. Even their livestock went with the Germans.

NEW CALIFORNIA GOLD RUSH ... Discovery of gold and a possible new "mother lode" at Crescent City, Calif., by a prospector, Joe Cronin, has started a full fledged gold rush with hundreds of people filing new claims. Shown looking at gold deposit in a pan are, left to right: Mr. and Mrs. Joe Miller, Alvin Farlet, Joe Azevedo, assayer, and Ernest Hey.

POLIO VICTIM KEEPS UP WITH CLASS ... School bells rang for Bill De Smith, 8, Dayton, Ohio, who didn't let a little thing like a wheel chair keep him from starting his third grade classes. Billy was stricken with polio in May, 1944, and has been unable to leave his wheel chair since. He is taken to and from school by his father. With Billy in school, left to right, Janice Sherwood, Louis Malloy, Bill and Janet Scheve.

TO BE OR NOT TO BE ... Independent or join the CIO or the AFL. That was the question when A. F. Whitney, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, opened the 28th national convention at Miami Beach, Fla.

SPEEDY MITE REGATTA ... Growth of the small-boat fad in America is epitomized by the many regattas held. Latest gathering of the clan was at Wrightsville Beach, N. C., where 150 entries participated. The youngest racer in the regatta was Carmen Davis, 12, Wilmington, N. C. Boat manufacturers are gearing themselves to supply the demand for thousands of inexpensive, easily handled boats.

VIEWS SHRINKING WORLD ... Using a magnifying glass, Trygve Lie, secretary general of the United Nations, gazes at a tiny sphere of the world whose peoples are becoming more and more like "next door neighbors." The globe is shrinking due to political considerations and air travel.

"Ah-h-h! I Can Breathe Again!"

If your nose sometimes fills up with stuffy transient congestion—put a few drops of V-a-tro-nol in each nostril. It quickly reduces congestion and makes breathing easier in a hurry ... gives grand relief from sniffling, sneezing, stuffy distress of head colds. Follow directions in the package.

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

SHE'LL feel so grown-up in this adorable two piece dress—just like big sister's. The jacket is daintily scalloped, with puffed sleeves and a pert Peter Pan collar. The swinging skirt is attached to a bodice for comfort.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

For a change, paint your ordinary flower pots with black enamel. You will be surprised how well they set off bright flowering plants such as pink petunias.

A large paper bag slipped over the end of a furnace pipe will save a lot of dirt when cleaning the pipes.

Before stringing small beads dip the end of the thread in glue which will dry quickly. The beads will thread easily without the use of a needle.

One more row to hoe

The boy from the farm is on foreign soil today!

Instead of overalls, he's wearing his country's uniform. He's standing watch over the hard-won peace. He's safeguarding your future!

At heart, he's still that farm boy. His laughter sounds the same—when he can laugh. He still goes for cokes and cakes—when he can get them. And he still gets mighty homesick—when he has nothing else to do but think of home.

Your USO has one more row to hoe. Another round of laughs to plant. Another crop of cheer.

Your USO needs your help, as much as ever. For millions of American boys still need the USO. They need the camp shows and clubhouses—the hours of relaxation and entertainment—a place to hang their hats and loosen their belts.

They need to know that the folks back home are still thinking of them—are still willing to pitch in and make their task a lighter one.

Tell the farm boy you're with him—every step of the way. Say it through the USO. Say it with dollars!

Keep it up...

Don't let them down!
