

Stuart Bronchos No Match for Powerful O'Neill Eagles

O'Neill's 'T' Befuddles Visitors in 43-7 Triumph

TIBBETTS SPARKLES

The O'Neill Eagles feasted on easy prey here Friday night. The Stuart Bronchos, who, according to the comparative scores were supposed to give Coach F. E. Saindon's aggregation a bad time, were hopelessly outclassed, score 43-7.

The Eagles' knatty "T" formation swept the Bronchos off their feet early, and the visitors never regained their pregame poise.

Fullback Ray Calkins set the stage for the banquet when he knifed through the center of the Stuart line and scored from the Stuart 10 early in the first quarter. A few plays later Bob Matthews danced across on an end-around and the fate of the Bronchos was sealed.

The half ended 24-7.

Shaffer Sprints 60 Yards

Stuart's lone tally came near the end of the second stanza when Fullback Keith Shaffer Stuart's mainstay, scooped up an O'Neill lateral and raced 60 yards to score. O'Neill's fleet-footed Halfback Dick Tibbetts, who began to give chase, was blocked out, and Shaffer steamed on across.

The vaunted Stuart passing attack, which had netted the Bronchos most of their yardage this season, was a liability against the Eagles. The Bronchos failed to complete a single forward, and two were intercepted, one by Back Ivan Saindon, who ran 48 yards to score.

Shaffer, the key to Stuart's aerial offensive, was rushed off his feet by ravenous Eagles.

'T' Too Baffling

Tibbetts, Matthews and Calkins scored two touchdowns apiece and Saindon once in the parade across the Stuart goal line that never ceased until the game was over. The Eagles were substituted freely, but nothing the Bronchos offered could stop the well-oiled "T".

The swivel-hipped Tibbetts again sparked the O'Neill offensive. His most brilliant run of the evening was the return of a kick from his own 10 to Stuart's 8, where he got tangled up with his own interference, and was hauled down.

The O'Neill high school band and pep club, entertaining at intermission, moved off the field while formed in a character "S".

27 Days Slashed Off Pheasant Hunting Season

Twenty-seven days have been slashed-off the current pheasant hunting season in Nebraska. The cease fire order will go into effect on December 9 instead of January 5, the original termination date.

The announcement that the season would windup "prematurely" was issued Friday at Lincoln by the state game commission following an all-day session. Daily bag and possession limits will remain the same — seven cocks.

The shooting began October 19 in this section, and began a week later in the west portion of the state, where the limit is five cocks. Hunters generally complained about a lack of birds. The scarcity here is blamed on a late freeze last spring, which has caused almost a dearth of young birds, and an abundance of cover, that has provided protection for many of the adults.

Commission Chairman Ernest Bihler, of Omaha, indicated that the information the commission received during August, when the pheasant dates were set, had been inaccurate. A new procedure for checking the ratio of young birds to adults was inaugurated this year. However, the commission members agreed that it was a more accurate check than the conventional roadside count.

'No Difference'
Before the commission arrived at its decision to shorten the season, Member Ralph Kryger, of Neligh, commented: "I don't know that it makes a great deal of difference. The hunters aren't getting the birds anyway."

Scores of hunters took to the fields in this region last weekend, but the number of sportsmen coming from a distance was far below the normal for this stage of the season.

Four fatalities have occurred in Nebraska thus far in the 1946 shooting season. All four fatalities were traced to the use of loaded shotguns in automobiles. A high percentage of arrests made by game conservation officers since the pheasant and duck season opened has been for this violation. The loaded gun law, which is a safety law rather than a conservation law, carries a maximum penalty of $100 fine or 30 days in jail upon conviction.

Duck Stamps Required
Duck and goose hunters must have their shotguns plugged to contain a maximum of three shells, and must also have a federal duck stamp attached to their hunting permit. Violators are subject to federal prosecution.

CHAMBERS NEXT FOR ST. MARY'S

The Chambers Coyotes are next on the agenda for the recuperating St. Mary's Cardinals, who have been laying off their gridiron chores since their ding-dong victory over St. Patrick's of North Platte here October 27.

Chambers defeated the Cardinals earlier 12-33, when key figures were out of the O'Neill lineup because of injuries.

Rev. R. J. Lisco, the Cards' coach, said today (Thursday), that the St. Mary's club is once more back at peak strength. With a week's preparation ahead, the Cards will be out to avenge the earlier loss. Chambers was humiliated 45-0 by Sacred Heart last week. St. Mary's lost to the same team 48-0 earlier in the season.

Eagles Go to Neligh Friday

NELIGH—The Neligh Warriors, blushing thus far with an unimpressive record, will be out to spill the proverbial dope bucket here Friday night when the powerful O'Neill Eagles come to town.

Comparative scores between the Neligh and O'Neill teams show O'Neill a heavy favorite. The Eagles trounced Ewing 20-0 and bested Creighton 31-8. Ewing dumped Neligh by a one-touchdown margin in the Warriors' opener and Creighton bested Neligh by one-point.

Coach Dick Fisher's Neligh club has topped Battle Creek and Elgin and tied Madison. Albion beat Neligh 35-13.

Pack Fruits, Vegetables — PAGE — The Get-to-Gether club met with Mrs. Ethel Asher on October 25. The group packed 70 quarts of canned fruit and vegetables and three bushels of fresh vegetables for shipment to the Nebraska Children's home at Omaha. Sixteen members were present.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. DeBacker attended a two-day J. C. Penney store convention in Omaha last week.

CHAMBERS BURIED BY SACRED HEART

Norfolkans Flash Too Much Speed, Deception; Win 45-0

NORFOLK — Chambers high school was knocked out of the dwindling family of unbeaten six-man grid teams in the state last Thursday night when Sacred Heart of Norfolk, sporting the first grid team in the school's history, blasted the Holt county-ans 45-0 before a throng of more than 2,200 fans.

The game was a feature on the all-day Hallowesta festival program, sponsored by the Norfolk Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Fullback Todd Harrison, Sacred Heart's 165-pound whiz, who did the most damage against St. Mary's of O'Neill when the two academy teams clashed several weeks earlier, threw the book at the hapless Chambers crew. He ran 51, 42 and 35 yards through broken fields to score, and conducted himself generally in a manner that spelled disaster to Chambers.

Sacred Heart employed substitutes throughout the second half but the scoring was never checked.

Backs Roman Walters and Bernard Cooke and Right End Bob Adams led Chambers in futile efforts to score. There were three mild threats all through the air, but the Sacred Heart goal was never endangered seriously.

Cooke was lost early in the game with a leg fracture. Sacred Heart had triumphed over St. Mary's 48-0.

Entertain at Duck Dinner — EMMET — October 27 the William Grothe family served a duck dinner to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schwab and daughter, of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Johnson and family, of O'Neill; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Grothe and family, Mrs. Earl Farr and son, Gene, of O'Neill; and Albert Henning.

Here From Wyoming — Mrs. R. O. Newton and children, of Riverton, Wyo., arrived October 29, to visit Mrs. Newton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Morrison.

F. F. MARTIN, 51, BURIED AT SPENCER

SPENCER — F. F. ("Kelly") Martin, 51, who was born in O'Neill March 13, 1895, was buried here October 15. He died October 12 following a sudden heart attack.

Mr. Martin, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Martin, spent his early childhood in O'Neill where he attended school and was active in athletics. Returning from Army service in World War I, he settled in Spencer, where he lived for 26 years and served as a rural mail carrier.

On September 23, 1922, he was married to Miss Hazel Graves. They became the parents of one daughter, Frances Mae, of Spencer.

Survivors include the widow and daughter; four brothers, William, Joseph and Henry, all of O'Neill; and George, of Wichita Falls, Tex.; two sisters, Mrs. H. E. Godek, of Omaha, and Mrs. Francis Bazelman, of O'Neill; eight nephews, seven nieces, and other relatives. He was preceded in death by one brother.

EWING CAPTURES CORNBELT CROWN

EWING—Coach Marvin Miller's Ewing Tigers tucked away the Cornbelt loop crown Friday night by administering an 18-6 shellacking on Battle Creek. It was Ewing's first season in the Cornbelt conference.

Back Bob Dunaway scampered 90 yards after intercepting a Battle Creek pass to score on the most spectacular play.

Other teams in the conference are Neligh, Elgin, Meadow Grove, and Madison.

Ewing plays at Atkinson on Armistice day in the season's finale.

Mark Birthday Anniversary — PAGE — Mr. and Mrs. Allen Haynes entertained at seven o'clock dinner on October 24, honoring Mrs. Laurence Haynes on her birthday anniversary.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Haynes and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Haynes, Elwin, and Melissa.

Why Bert Won First Prize

Folks weren't surprised when Bert Childers won first prize for his corn at the county fair.

Yet the judges admit it wasn't just because Bert had the finest ears of corn. He knew how to display them: neatly arranged, with the husks cleanly trimmed, and the booth white and spotless.

"Trimmings" sure make a difference no matter what you're offering—as Andy Botkin, keeper of the Garden Tavern, well knows. Andy doesn't just sell good beer. He sells it in a place that's clean and attractive... in nice surroundings that belong with the enjoyment of a wholesome beverage of moderation.

And Andy, of course, is a wholehearted supporter of "Self Regulation." That's the system by which the Brewers and tavern keepers themselves make sure that taverns selling beer are clean and orderly.

From where I sit, people like Andy also rate a "First prize." Not just for the quality of the product—but for the "trimmings" too.
