

Project Club Studies
"The Place We Live"

The Elkhorn Project club studied O'Neill's growth and changes in its meeting last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Pete Fetrow. Mrs. Albert Klinger was assisting hostess.

Mrs. Frank Greenier and Mrs. Fetrow had charge of the lesson, which was entitled, "The Place We Live." Mrs. D. N. Loy discussed O'Neill's buildings, including various schools, churches, postoffices, from the original buildings until the present. There was also a report on the changes in the residential district.

Mrs. Robert Cook told of the changes in business buildings during the past 35 years. Mrs. Nina Green told of improvements in the city's water and sewer systems and the paving of the streets. Mrs. Max Greenier displayed old photographs in connection with her remarks. Mrs. Klinger told of several O'Neill residents who have become prominent nationally.

Gift Exchange Planned — The O'Neill Woman's club will meet at the home of Mrs. James W. Rooney for the annual Christmas party next Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. There will be the usual gift exchange.
