THE FRONTIER

VOLUME 66 — NUMBER 32.

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1946.

CLARA B. MILES, PUBLISHER, DIES

Death Claims Widow of Longtime O'Neill Newspaperman

BURIAL TUESDAY

Mrs. Clara B. Miles, 77, publisher of the Holt County Independent at O'Neill and widow of the late George A. Miles, died at 11:15 a.m. Sunday at her home here. She had been in failing health in recent years and seriously ill for the past four weeks. The attending physician, Dr. O. W. French, said death was caused by a cerebral hemorrhage.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 2 p.m. at the First Presbyterian church here with Rev. Kenneth J. Scott, church pastor, officiating. Interment was in Prospect Hill cemetery near the grave of the late Mr.

Mrs. Miles, formerly Clara B. Shipman, was born in Pike county, Illinois, at Barry, on August 12, 1869. Her father was Alfred Shipman, a native of Gastonburg, Ill. She moved with her parents to Brown county, Nebraska, in 1883, when they homesteaded near Ainsworth.

Reared on Homestead rural schools for several years prior to her marriage on May 10, 1892 to George A. Miles, of Ainsworth. They became the parents of two sons and one daughter.

On January 1, 1904 the family came to O'Neill where the late Mr. Miles became the owner and publisher of the Holt County Independent. Mr. Miles died July 28, 1937, and his widow became the publisher of the Independent.

in the state Woodman Circle in sentative of Nebraska Petroleum served at the close. which she held the positions of Industries committee, and State president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer. She was a Albion. lifelong honorary vice-president of the organization.

The pallbearers were James W. Rooney, C. E. Jones, Ralph Rickly, Arlo Hiatt, Earl W. Ralya and match Washington funds," the ing World War II, and the "Navy" Pete Heriford.

County Officials Return

urday returned from Omaha more gasoline will be used. This where they attended the three- money, however, will be needed days' 52nd annual convention of for road projects now in process Nebraska Association of or about to be started. County Officials.

J. Matousek, George Collins, J. C. the pace we have been going," Stein and Joseph Schollmeyer, he concluded. Clerk Ruth Hoffman. Register of During a di Deeds Esther Cole Harris, and ka's highway system, the group Clerk of District Court Ira Moss.

Go to Oklahoma, Texas — District Judge D. R. Mounts and Mrs. Mounts departed Wed- Mrs. French Heads nesday for Tonkawa, Okla., and Eagle Pass, Tex., where they will spend the holidays with relatives.

Mrs. Ayrtia Drew, of Los Angeles, Calif., and Miss Gladys Peterson, of Hollywood, Calif., arrived Thursday to visit their sister, Mrs. Art Cowperthwaite.

SICK & INJURED

O'NEILL — Henry Tomlinson departed December 11 for Norfolk to receive medical attention. was a medical patient. . Mrs. John Q. DeWitt, the former Betpendectomy at the Mary Lanning erature and publications. hospital in Hastings Sunday evening. Her condition is good.

Mace,, jr., underwent a major operation at St. Joseph's hospital in Sioux City, December 9. . . Mrs. Glen Taylor submitted to a minor operation at the Lutheran hospital in Norfolk last Thursday. She returned home Tuesday. . Ned Alderson is a patient in a Sioux City hospital, recovering Leo J. Spittler, Jr., Ewing; Don from injuries received when his E. Holliday, Stuart, and Richard team of horses ran away. . . Russell. Minor submitted to an appendicitis operation at the Stuart hospital Friday.

EMMET-Miss Gladys Schmode returned home Sunday from St. Vincent's hospital where she had submitted to a major opera-Robert Fox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fox, is recovering from pneumonia. . . Mrs. C. E. Tenborg is ill.

PAGE-Mrs. Lleyd Fussleman, who had been seriously ill at her tion is improved.

DIES AT 77

Mrs. Clara B. Miles, 77 . . . publisher of the Holt County Independent . . . expires at her home here. (Story at left.)

HIGHWAY 20 GROUP

Says Better Roads Mean More Taxes

Nearly 100 delegates of the She taught in Brown county Highway 20 association, in session at Plainview, heard State men's extension clubs were func-Senator Ernest Raasch, of Nor-folk, say that "everyone recognizes the need for better roads in Nebraska, but along with the need goes the responsibility of raising funds to finance the projects.'

Senator Raasch was one of three speakers addressing the highway 20 boosters, representing com-The late Mrs. Miles was active John Ainley, of Lincoln, repre-Senator-Elect Glenn Cramer, of 'Army-Navy' Tilt

"Under the present system of raising funds," Raasch said, "our Survivors include the two sons, Gerald E. and Fay A., editors of the Independent, and one daughter than the Independent, and one daughter than the Independent of the ter, Mrs. Gladys Davies, of Deer lion dollar fund available from the St. Mary's vs. St. Agnes (of Trail, Colo. There are seven the federal treasury, which can Alliance) game. grandchildren and three great- be used only if matched with state funds.

"At the present rate it will be 1, 1947, there will be about two GIs. and one-half million dollars in the road building fund; howevfrom State Meeting the road building fund, however, a sum of approximately five to eight million dollars will be Seven Holt county officials Sat- available during 1947 since much

"We can get along without any These included Supervisors Ed new taxes if we are content with

> During a discussion of Nebrasindicated a decided preference for concrete paving in comparison with blacktop.

Methodist WSCS

PAGE-Mrs. Florence French was elected president of the Aethodist WSCS at a recent election of officers. Others named were: Mrs. Faye Heiss, vice-president; Mrs. Emma Dorr, recording secretary; Mrs. Maude Harcorresponding secretary; Mrs. Rose Vromen, treasurer. Special secretaries are: Mrs. Hilda Allen, spiritual life; Mrs. Goldie Stauffer, missionary educa-Mrs. Margaret McMillan and tion and service; Mrs. Icie Rost, Miss Mary Markey spent from last Thursday until Saturday in Sioux City, where Miss Markey Mrs. Florence Heiss, youth work; The Junior choir will have spentile. Mrs. Carl Rayburn, children's cial Christmas music. There will work; Mrs. Chichester, supply be a service of baptism for any ty Longan, submitted to an ap- work, and Mrs. Susie Haynes, lit- who desire the sacrament. Per- ship service centering around

9 MORE EX-GIS

Nine more registrants in the CHAMBERS - Mrs. Annie Holt county Selective Service centered around the slides "In the have been discharged since De- Steps of the Master." There will cember 11, it was announced to- be a choric reading of the Nativday (Thursday.) They are: Lyle ity stories from the gospels. The D. Robinson, Page; Troxel E. choir will sing, "Carol of the Green, Chambers; Ralph R. Mor-Bells," a Christmas choir cantaris, Stuart; Marlin W. Schipman, ta by Lee Rogers. Everyone is Chambers; Bran J. Dempsey, O'-Neill; Walter F. Manley, O'Neill; L. Lehmann, Chambers.

> MARRIAGE LICENSES Labern H. Cadwallader, 27 and Elsie E. Morris, 19, both of Stuart, December 16

Herbert Timm, 47, of Brunswick, and Hazel Haines, 31, of Page, December 16. Leonard O. Mlady, 27, of Verdigre, and Rosemary French, 19, of Cedar Rapids, December 18.

Arthur Rouse, of O'Neill, suffered a broken leg Monday when home here for several weeks, Fri- he was kicked by a horse. He day entered Our Lady of Lourdes was admitted to the O'Neill hos- Holiness church in giving our hospital at Norfolk. Her condi- pital where the fracture is being Christmas program at their

MULFORD, SIDERS NEW DIRECTORS

Succeed Beck and Bowen in Holt Farm Bureau

Two new directors for the Holt county farm bureau were named Tuesday in the annual year-end meeting of the group. They are: Charles Mulford, of Stuart, who succeeds James B. Beck, of Stuart, representing the First district, and Ray Siders, of O'Neill, who replaces D. E. Bowen, of Page, representing the Second George Rost, of Page, repre-senting the Fourth district, was reelected.

New officers will be elected after the turn of the year. Present of icers are: Clarnce Ernst, of O'-Neill, president; Ora Yarges, of Stuart, vice-president; Mabel Hammerberg, of Atkinson, secretary; and D. E. Bowen, of Page, 35 Present Thitry-five persons, including 4-H club and extension leaders nouncement that 350 boys and girls participated in 4-H work tioning during the same period. The farm bureau was founded the danger of spoilage.

sion. They were entitled "Food" and "Potatoes Unlimited." The first was a Walt Disney cartoon illustrating "what you didn't eat," and the second was a Department munities between Laurel and O'- of Agriculture release on food preparation. Coffee and doughnuts were

Planned Here

The "Army" quintet will be composed of ex-St. Mary's and ex-O'Neill high basketballers who a slow process to raise money to served terms in the Army dursenator continued. "By January quint will be madeup of ex-Navy Details will be announced.

O'NEILL HOSPITAL NOTES

Mrs. Donald Hill and infant son, of O'Neill, were dismissed Tuesday. . . Mrs. Arthur Kropp and infant son, of Ewing, were Coleman and infant son, of Inman, were dismissed Monday. . Mrs. Charles Mulford, of Stuart, and family. is improved. She was admitted Sunday. . . Mrs. John Schrunk. of Atkinson, is improving.

The story of the birth of the Christ child in Bethlehem nearly two thousand years ago will be retold in worship and song in Holt county churches during the approaching holiday

Plans for the Christmas observance for many of the churches follow, as submitted

METHODIST (O'Neill)

Rev. Lloyd W. Mullis, pastor

Sunday-school, 9:55 a.m., Lorenz Bredemeier, general superinsons will be received who wish to

The MYF will "din-a-mite" at 5:30 p.m. Their worship service,

The children of the Sunday-chool will present their program of Christmas stories and songs,

Tuesday, December 24, at 7:30.

The junior choir will have a candle light service and sing an anthem. Slides will be shown on Special Christmas offering envelopes are being distributed for

CENTER UNION

Rev. Melvin Grosenbach, Pastor

11 p.m. There will be no evening service as we are joining the Worship, 10 a.m. Sunday-school

'The Other Wise Man."

our world service gifts.

may be returned December 22.

unite with the church.

invited to attend.

church in O'Neill.

by the pastors:

SANTA CONFIRMS PLANS FOR VISIT

Santa Claus has confirmed his plans for arriving in O'Neill Saturday at 2 p.m., it was announced Wednesday by Leo Moore, chairman of the committee in charge of arrange-ments for Santa's visit.

Mr. Moore said that he had been in radio contact with the North Pole. In order to speed matters Santa said he would abandon his sleigh and fly to O'Neill by plane. He will be met at the O'Neill airport by members of the O'Neill volunteer fire department, and he will ride into town on a fire truck.

Mr. Moore said that treats will be distributed to the kiddies at the Moore-Noble lumber yard, where Santa will be pleased to talk to all the youngsters.

MERCURY DIPS TO 6 DEGREES

the region late Monday accompa- odist church. and others interested in extension nied by a brisk wind that emphawork, attended the afternoon ses- sized the cold. The mercury Elmer Rogers, of Granite Falls, former Almira Durrell, of Barry, State Senator Raasch sion held in the assembly room at dropped to six degrees, the low-ficient to record.

during the past year, and 24 wo-men's extension clubs were func-harvest. County Agent A. Neil children, two stepsons, and one Dawes declared that there is lit-here more than 25 years ago.

Two educational films were shown following the business sessorm at 45-bushels per acre, which "was best ever."

The week's weather summary based on daily readings at 8 a.m.

Dates		14	H	i Lo	Moi
December	13	1	28	18	T
December	14	-	24	16
December	15	1	34	24
December	16	-	48	29	T
December	17	1	29	6
December	18	L	21	8
December	19	-	33	8
	-			_

Everings Until 9

O'Neill stores will be open until nine o'clock on Friday and Monday evenings, it was annouced this week by the Chamber of Commerce.

The purpose of the move is to facilitate buying for lastminute shoppers.

The store hours for Saturday will remain unchanged.

Return to San Antonio -

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Lounsberdismissed Monday. . . Mrs. George home in San Antonio, Tex., after spending a few weeks here with Mr. Lounsberry's brother, Jerry, J. L. Moore, Mrs. James W. Cor-spent Saturday in Norfolk.

METHODIST (Inman)

Rev. Lloyd W. Mullis, pastor

Herbert R. Rouse, lay leader velopes should be returned De-slides "In the Steps of the Mas-

ASSEMBLY OF GOD (O'Neill)

Rev. J. M. Cummings, pastor

Melvin L. Jennings, returned recently from Luzon, will be with us in a missionary service. Slides will be shown of the bombed churches in Manilla. The public

On Tuesday evening, we will service. Treats for everyone. Let us remember at this Christmas season the Christ. Why not accept Him at this season as your

The pastor and family wish everyone a very merry Christmas.

METHODIST (Page)

Rev. Carl B. Rayburn, pastor

Stauffer, superintendent.

Sunday-school, 10 a.m., Edgar cember 22.

is invited.

personal Saviour.

ship, 11 a.m.

They

people are invited.

sung by Mrs. Donald Loy.

JENNIE WILCOX DIES IN WEST

Longtime Inman Resident Expires at Home of Her Son

INMAN-Mrs. Jennie Wilcox, 76, a resident of Inman for 38 years, Friday died at the home of a son, Elmer Rogers, in Gran-ite Falls, Wash. Death was caused by a heart ailment. She had been in failing health for several years. Funeral services were held Tuesday at 3 p.m. in Granite Falls. Details of the rites have not been received here.

Mrs. Wilcox, twice married, moved from Inman to Washington in August, after she had closed the family home here. Her first husband died 58 years ago.
Later, she married Mr. Wilcox and the family moved from Chambers to Inman, where Mr. Wilcox was engaged in the real estate business. Mr. Wilcox died 25 years ago. The late Mrs. Wilcox was ac-

Old Man Winter moved into ah lodge circles and in the Meth-

Survivors include three sons, sion held in the assembly room at dropped to six cegrees, the low-the courthouse.

One of the highlights of the year-end reports was the antice rails, dropped to six cegrees, the low-courtney Wilcox, of Erie, Pa., and Carl Wilcox, of Portland, Ore.; two daughters, Mrs. Cecil Adams, of Fairbault, Minn., and Mrs. Nels Rasmussen, of San Meanwhile, some Holt county Francisco, Calif. There are 19 stepdaughter.

One son, George Wilcox, of Lincoln, and one daughter, Mrs. Norvil Church, of New York City, preceded their mother in death.

Parks Infant Dies

Margaret Ann Parks, infant twin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alva C. Parks, of Ewing, died Monday in the O'Neill hospital three hours following her birth.

Mary Ellen Parks, the other twin, is "doing nicely," hospital attendants said.

The O Neill hospital trict "have been reclined and may, sold for $4,025. The Homp-the son Hay company, of Newport, mately 18,000 "have been heeled in, ready for Spring planting in trict "have been reclined and hay, sold for $4,025. The Homp-the son Hay company, of Newport, mately 18,000 "have been heeled in, ready for Spring planting in trict "have been reclined and hay, sold for $4,025. The Homp-the son Hay company, of Newport, mately 18,000 "have been heeled in, ready for Spring planting in trict "have been reclined and hay, sold for $4,025. The Homp-the son Hay company, of Newport, mately 18,000 "have been heeled in, ready for Spring planting in the company of Newport, and the company of Newport, mately 18,000 "have been heeled in, ready for Spring planting in the company of Newport, mately 18,000 "have been heeled in, ready for Spring planting in the company of Newport, mately 18,000 "have been heeled in, ready for Spring planting in the company of Newport, mately 18,000 "have been heeled in, ready for Spring planting in the company of Newport, mately 18,000 "have been heeled in, ready for Spring planting in the company of Newport, mately 18,000 "have been heeled in, ready for Spring planting in the company of Newport, mately 18,000 "have been heeled in, ready for Spring planting in the company of Newport, mately 18,000 "have been heeled in, ready for Spring planting in the company of Newport, mately 18,000 "have been heeled in, ready for Spring planting in the company of Newport, mately 18,000 "have been heeled in, ready for Spring planting in the company of Newport, mately 18,000 "have been heeled in, ready for Spring planting in the company of Newport, mately 18,000 "have been heeled in, ready for Spring planting in the company of Newport, mately 18,000 "have been heeled in, ready for Spring planting in the company of Newport, mately 18,000 "have been heeled in, ready for Spring planting in t Funeral services were held early 1947."

Wednesday at Deloit with Rev. Anthony Urbanski officiating at the interment rites in St. John's Cordered through the cordered through t Survivors include the parents, the twin sister, and one brother.

Mrs. Parks is the former Teresa

G. Thiele. CDA in Annual tainment.

Christmas Party The Catholic Daughters of America held the annual Christmas party Tuesday at 8:15 p.m. in the Knights of Columbus hall here. Cards featured the enter-

Mrs. Lcretta Hynes won high honors; Mrs. Lyle Green won low. ry departed Monday for their and Mrs. John Pruss won all-cut The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. John Melvin, Mrs. kle, Miss Kathleen Wanke, Mrs.

Christ Child's Birth to Be Retold

HOLINESS CHURCH (O'Neill) Sunday-school, 10 a.m. Morning Worship, 9:45 a.m. Christmas worship, 11 a.m. It is our privi-Center Union Sunday-school join us in the giving of the Chair and drive."

"Above all," he said, "do not drink and drive." Sunday, "Jesus Is Born Anew." "Jesus Bambino," a solo, will be us in the giving of the Christmas program. We also welcome ev-Church school, 10:45 a.m. Hareryone to this program and to vey Tompkins, general superin- any of our services at any time. tendent. Classes for all the fam-We wish to take advantage of ily. Everyone welcome. Spethis opportunity in wishing you cial Christmas envelopes are bea merry Christmas and a happy ing distributed for our world New Year.

service gifts. One-third of our "God so loved the world that world service quota could be met He gave His only begotten Son, this season if we remembered that whosoever believeth in Him others with generous gifts. Enshould not perish, but have everlasting life. The fellowship will have a wor-

PRESBYTERIAN (O'Neill) Rev Kenneth J. Scott, pastor

Sunday-school, 10 a. m., John ter." Refreshments will follow a Harbottle, superintendent; worperiod of recreation. All young ship 11 a.m. Sermon: "How Can This Be?" Vocal solo: "O, Holy Night" sung by Miss Margie Ral-Christmas anthem sung by the young people's choir, Harry Sunday-school, 10 a.m.; wor-Clauson, director. Junior Westship, 11 a.m.; evangelistic service, minster fellowship, 5:30 p.m. Sen-8 p.m. Wednesday Bible study, ior Westminster fellowship, 7 p.m. The Sunday-school Christmas On Friday evening, Chaplain program will be December 24, at > CHRIST LUTHERAN (O'Neill) Rev. P. J. Wirth, vacancy pastor The children's Christmas program will be at 7:30 p.m. There will be no services at have our Christmas program and | 2:30 p.m. CHURCH OF EPIPHANY

(Emmet) Rev. John J. O'Brien, pastor

Masses Christmas day at 9 and 10 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Noel E. Long and daughter, Andra, of Denver, Colo., arrived Sunday to visit Mrs. Long's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Robertson. Mrs. Long is the former Eileen Robertson.

Vets Offer Blood for Transfusions

Two veterans of World War II, William Vorce and William ("Bill") Kelly, went to Omaha Sunday to offer blood for transfusions to John Bonenberger, of Atkinson.

Bonenberger is a patient in St. Catherine's hospital. suffering from internal hemorrhages caused by stomach ulcers. He has been critically ill for more than a week and numerous transfusions have been necessary. Commander Glea H. Wade of the American Legion post here is asking any veteran with type "O" blood to contact him-self or John Grutsch, because it may be necessary for subsequent transfusions to save the patient's life. Both Vorce and Kelly are Legionnaires.

DWINDLE RAPIDLY

Countyans for Next Spring Planting

Some 60,000 trees have been ordered by Holt county farmers through the Clarke-McNary forestry program in cooperation with Holt county extension service, it was reported this week by County Agent A. Neil Dawes.

These seedlings will be used to supplement the shelterbelt plantings by the Holt county soil conservation district, which has already passed the 43,000 mark with orders for trees.

Dawes said that the Clarke-3 Hours After Birth

McNary stocks are rapidly being depleted, and those who are considering ordering "should do so without delay."

D. E. Bowen, chairman of the soil conservation district, said that the trees on order for the district "have been reclined and hay, sold for $4,025. The Thomp-ordered through the soil conservation district must be planted on farms cooperating with the district, while the Clarke-McNary trees may be planted on "any farm.

Application blanks for trees may be obtained at the county agent's office in the basement of the Holt county courthouse. The price for the trees is $1.25 per

Safety Head Points to 1945 Yule Toll

in traffic accidents in Nebraska during the 12-day period preceeding Christmas, it was pointed out Mr. and Mrs. Clark Willson Mrs. John Grutsch, and Mrs. John ders, of the Nebraska safety pa-

> The grim 1945 yuletide toll prompted Sanders to appeal to all Nebraskans to join in an effort to reduce the traffic deaths during the 1946 holidays. He urges motorists to "drive with reason- the successful bidder in the sale Rev. Melvin Grosenbach, Pastor able speed and extra caution" to of the south 83 feet of four lots compensate for the dangers of in the southeast corner of the early darkness and icy highways. Holt county courthouse block.

KUROKI HERE

Ben Kuroki (above), a Japanese - Ameican who fought World War II in Europe, North Africa, the Middle East and the Pacific and emerged as one of the Nation's best-known war heroes, visited friends in O'Neill on December 11.

Kuroki's biography entitled "Boy from Nebraska" was published last month by Harper & Brothers, of New York City. It is not only a story of his amazing war exploits but a story of his fight against racial prejudice and intolerance on the part of some Americans.

He is a native of Hershey, near North Platte. Now on a nationwide lecture tour, he plans to enter the University

PAYS $56,000 FOR O'CONNOR RANCH

Putnam High Bidder for 2,400 - Acre Ranch Near Here

ESTATE CLOSING

L. D. Putnam, O'Neill stockman and rancher, Monday purchased the 2,400-acre ranch of the late Pat O'Connor for the sum of $56,-000—more than $23 per acre.

The sale was effected at the Holt county courthouse where Frank Biglin, executor for the O'-Connor estate, sponsored an auction of the real estate involved in the extensive O'Connor holdings.

Other buyers were: A. B. Hubbard, of O'Neill, who paid $6,700 for the six-room O'Connor "west" house on Seventh and Grant streets; Maurice J. Cavanaugh, of Dallas, S. D., formerly of O'Neill, who paid $5,600 for the five-room house adjoining; Phil Sherman, The late Mrs. Wilcox was active in Eastern Star and Rebek- 60,000 on Order for Holt nearly two unimproved lots on the east side of Fourth street, between the Chicago & Northwestern and Burlington railroad tracks, the site of the former O'-Connor haybarn.

Ranch Sold Intact

Biglin offered the sprawling O'-Connor ranch in three separate tracts and as a whole. Because the bid for the whole was greater than when divided, the ranch was sold intact.

Included on the ranch is one complete set of improvements and one other dwelling. The widely-publicized auction attracted numerous outoftown bidders, but they soon dropped out of the race, leaving only D. C. Schaffer, of O'Neill, and Put-Julius D. Cronin, of O'Neill, is the attorney for the estate. Ralph Eacker, of Ewing, was Over 400 head of livestock,

O'Connor's Life Colorful

Monday's auction draws near to a close the last chapter in the colorful life of the Irish immigrant, who came to Holt county penniless in 1886 and together with a sister homesteaded southwest of O'Neill. He later acquired his sister's interests and living alone proceeded to amass a

His interests were mainly in haying until recent years when he was also a stockman. His living habits were unusual and he was known as one of northcentral Nebraska's most col-In 1945, 12 persons met death orful characters. He died May 19, 1946, in a Lynch hospital.

Biglin said the estate would net approximately $90,000. Approximately half of the estate will go to a nephew and a niece in Ireland, and half to kin in this coun-

Emmet Carr Purchases

County Property -

The sale of the unimproved property by the Holt county board of supervisors was authorized by the voters at the primary election. Supervisor Andy Clark was in charge of the sale.

The transaction must be confirmed by the board of supervisors, which will probably consider the matter tomorrow (Friday.)

Future Subscribers

PARKS-Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Parks, of Ewing, twin daughters, weighing five pounds each, born Monday, December 16, in the O'-Neill hospital.

DERRICKSON-Mr. and Mrs. Albert Derrickson, of O'Neill, a son, weighing eight pounds, born today (Thursday), December 19, in the O'Neill hospital. RAVELL-Mr. and Mrs. Dale Ravell, of Opporunity, a son, weighing nine pounds, born Thursday, December 19, in the O'-

Neill hospital. WHITAKER-Lt. and Mrs. R. O. Whitaker, of Chambers, a daughter, weighing eight pounds, born Sunday, December 8, in New York City. Lt. Whitaker is a student at Iowa State college and Mrs. Whitaker is with her mother in New York City. FOREMAN - Mr. and Mrs. James Foreman, of Atkinson, a son, weighing six pounds, born Monday, December 15, Mrs. Foreof Nebraska in September, 1947. | man is the former Shirley Bates.