Mildred Binkerd Weds on New Year's

The wedding of Mrs. Mildred G. Binkerd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Wittfeldt, of O'Neill, and Melvin A. Spangler, son of Mrs. Ruth Spangler, of Clearwater, took place before noon on New Year's day at the Methodist church here with Rev. Lloyd W. Mullis officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Johnson, of Bristow, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, attended the couple.

Miss Gayl Wittfeldt, sister of the bride, sang "The Lord Is My Shepherd" and "I Love You Truly," with Mrs. Mullis at the piano. Mrs. Mullis also played the wedding march.

Joan Binkerd, flowergirl and John Binkerd, ringbearer, led the wedding group to the altar.

Mrs. Spangler was attired in a two-piece grey-wool crepe suit dress and a matching grey marabou hat with black accessories. Mrs. Johnson chose a black suit dress with brilliant sequia trim and matching sequia hat with a veil. Both wore corsages of pink-and-white carnations. Mr. Spangler and Mr. Johnson wore dark business suits.

Reception Held

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony at the M & M cafe. The four-tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature "bride" and "bridegroom", was baked and decorated by the bride's mother and aunt, Mrs. Carl Wittfeldt.

Outof town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Spangler, of Ewing; and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Johnson, Harold, Dean and Rosemary, of Bristow.

Mrs. Spangler has been employed at Brown-McDonald's for the past two and one-half years. Mr. Spangler served four years in the Army, receiving his discharge last year.

The couple took a short trip to Omaha and points in Iowa. They will make their home on Mr. Spangler's farm south of Ewing.
