'DEAR SON' TITLE ST. MARY'S PLAY

3-Act Comedy Stars Maxine Golden and James Marne

The senior class of St. Mary's academy will present "Dear Son," a three-act comedy written by Dana Thomas, at the public school auditorium Monday at 8 p.m. The cast is headed by Miss Maxine Golden and James Marne. Other members include Lu Ann Iler, John Bohn, Edward Hynes, Devine Brennan, Helen Kubitschek, Mary Murphy, James Gran, and Francis Rohde.

This play promises to be one of the most entertaining of the season, full of delightful laughter and homely sentiment. Mr. Marne will be seen as Lee Sheridan, a charming adolescent who thinks his future depends on his past. Playing opposite him is Miss Golden. Mr. Hynes and Miss Brennan handle comedy roles well, as do Miss Kubitschek, Miss Murphy and Mr. Tomjack. Rounding out the capable, well-balanced cast are Miss Iler, as Mrs. Linton, the boarding-house mistress; Mr. Bohn, as Davidson, a somewhat burly boarder, and Mr. Rohde as a youthful hitch-hiker.

Because of Jerry Tomjack's sudden illness, James Gran will substitute.

Three musical selections, "The March Of The Steal Men," "Martha," and "The Crusaders," will be played before the play by the St. Mary's band, under the direction of Ira George. The little third and fourth graders will do their part in furnishing entertainment by singing, "A Broth of a Boy," and "The Jaunting Car" will be sung by the fifth and sixth graders. The graders' trio will sing, "Top o' the Mornin' to You." Miss Regina Mullen, a senior will sing "Erin."
