

'SPANISH FIESTA' THEME OF INMAN JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

INMAN—The senior class and the faculty of the Inman public school were guests of the junior class at a formal banquet and "prom" in the assembly room of the high school last Thursday evening. The "Spanish Fiesta" theme was featured.

At 7 o'clock 30 "seniors" and "senoritas" entered the room, which was decorated in blue-and-gold, the senior class colors. A Spanish sombrero hung from the ceiling with blue-and-gold streamers radiating from it to the character "I," which formed the centerpiece for the tables.

Spanish dancers portrayed by Genevieve Brunckhorst, and a wishing well in a corner of the room completed the old Spanish scene. At intervals on the table were blue candles, which formed the lighting effect, and white roses, the class flower.

The placecards represented cacti. The nutcups were miniature sombreros, memory books were in the shape of a fan, and Spanish favors were given to each guest.

The six members of the sophomore class, Dotty Moore, Georgetown Sobotka, Barbara Brunckhorst, Tom Clark, Leonard Sholes and Larry Hopkins, dressed in Spanish costumes, served the three-course dinner, which had been prepared by the mothers of the juniors.

The menu: Fruta bebida, (fruit drink); hamon asado (baked ham); patata (potatoes); salsa, (gravy); ensalada verde, (spring salad); quisante verde, (green peas); salmuera, (relish); jaleo, (jelly); rollos (rolls); nueces, (nuts); dulces, (candy); pastel, (pie); nevevia, (ice cream); and cafe, (coffee).

The program follows: Welcome, Gordon Sholes; response, Richard Hutton; "Who Knows?" Mrs. Ira George; "You Belong to My Heart," vocal, Mildred Sobotka; "High School Life," Patty Sholes; "Until Tomorrow," Supt. Ralph Gray; class history, Mildred Sobotka; class prophecy, Genevieve Brunckhorst; class will, Reta Scholz; benediction, Joseph Coon.

The toastmaster was Max Mossman.

After the banquet the entire high school group was invited to participate in the dance. The feature of the evening was the coronation of the king, Tom Blake, and the queen, Mary Lou Sholes, who had been voted by the entire high school.

NIPS LEARN RIGHT OF BALLOT

For the first time in Japanese history, the ordinary Nipponese now has the right to ballot on his choice of local officials, previously appointee jobs. Since Japanese citizens are prone to hibernate in hot baths to remove the chill of outdoors, ballot boxes were placed strategically in a bathhouse to catch the vote of patrons, as shown in the above scene.
