

Constance Wirth,
William Buck Wed

ORCHARD — A wedding was solemnized in St. Peter's English Lutheran church at 4:30 p.m., April 20 in which Miss Constance

Wirth, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. P. J. Wirth, and William S. Buck, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Buck, exchanged vows. While St. Peter's organist, William Zimmerman, played Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," the bridesmaid, Mrs. Ann Golter, and the bestman, Philip Wirth, took the lead into the church, followed by the maid-of-honor, Miss Opal Soltman, and the bridegroom's attendant, Virgil Cleveland. The bride wore a white satin over net floor-length gown, a long trailing veil, white gloves and white slippers, and her only jewelry was a gold cross necklace, given to her by her father. Her ear rings were of pink and white shell. She carried a large bouquet of white snapdragons and pink roses, with pink and white streamers. The bridesmaid wore a blue floor-length gown of georgette trimmed in pale blue beads and carried a bouquet of yellow and red roses. The maid-of-honor wore a green floor-length gown, trimmed in black sequins, and also carried a bouquet of yellow and red roses. Mrs. Buck took nurses' training at Winfield, Kans., and Mr. Buck spent several years in the Navy, and is now employed at the Corke hatchery, at O'Neill, where the Bucks now make their home.

Miss Neva Ickes Bride of Canadian

PAGE—Baskets of gladioli and white ferns and seven branch candelabras formed the background for a candlelight wedding ceremony at Plymouth Congregational church in Lincoln April 11 at 7:30 p.m. Miss Neva Ickes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neven D. Ickes, of Page, became the bride of Michael E. Kainer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Kainer of Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada. Myron Roberts, organist, played a prelude of wedding music including "Liebestraum," "The Wedding Hymn," and "The Wedding March."

The bride, given away by her father, wore a street-length dress of navy blue crepe with navy and white accessories. Her corsage was of white roses and stephanotis. The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Sybil Ickes. She wore a gray crepe dress with black ensemble and a corsage of talisman roses. Joseph Kainer, brother of the bridegroom, was his attendant. After the ceremony, a reception was held for the family at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. John Jackson. Mr. and Mrs. Kainer are residing at 2910 P street in Lincoln. Mrs. Kainer is a member of Beta Sigma Phi sorority and for five years has been employed at the city water and light department in Lincoln. Mr. Kainer served two and one-half years in the Canadian Royal navy. He is now attending the University of Nebraska.
