SOCIETY

SUNSET TEA HONORS LADIES OVER 70 YEARS OF AGE

Neumann-Storjohann Nuptials Held—

At the Presbyterian church in Omaha April 19, Miss DeLoris Storjohann, eldest daughter of J. and Mrs. John Storjohann, of Omaha, became the bride of Robert G. Neumann, son of Mrs. Juy Neumann, of Chappell.

Miss Lotis Storjohann, the bride's sister, was maid-of-honor, and Frank Cooper, also of Omaha, was bestman.

The bride was attired in navy blue gabardine suit and grey accessories. She wore a corsage of gardenias. The maid-of-honor wore a grey gabardine suit with black accessories. She, also, had a gardenia corsage.

Mrs. Storjohann was graduated from Atkinson high school in the class of 1935. She graduated from the University of Nebraska in 1941. Previous to her position with the YMCA in Omaha, she taught in the home economics department of O'Neill high school. She is a cousin of Laurence Storjohann, of O'Neill.

Mr. Neumann also graduated from the University of Nebraska and at one time was athletic coach at Atkinson high school. He entered the Navy in 1942 and served for three years. He is now in the hardware business in Chappell, where Mr. and Mrs. Neumann will reside, after a wedding trip through the southern states.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Rodman entertained Sunday at a dinner party for Mrs. Rodman's parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Bild, of Page, her brother, Dr. E. J. Bild, jr., of Humphrey, and Dr. Charles E. Bild, of Miami, Fla. The latter left Monday after a four-day visit with the Earl Rodmans and other relatives.

Mesdames Rector, Conard, Porter Win— Mrs. A. B. Hubbard was hostess to the M and M club Wednesday evening in her home. The high winners at their respective tables were Mrs. George Rector, Mrs. John Conard and Mrs. C. W. Porter. The guests were Mrs. Rector, Mrs. D. C. Schaffer and Mrs. George Kelly.

Mrs. L. G. Gillespie Hostess— The Woodmen Circle is meeting this evening (Thursday) at the home of Mrs. L. G. Gillespie. The field worker, Mrs. Mildred Gustason, is expected to be present and will remain in O'Neill for a few days.

Marks 17th Milestone — Daniel DeBacker, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. DeBacker, celebrated his 17th birthday anniversary evening. The eight guests savoring with a party at home Sunday and played games. Afterwards, refreshments were served.

Patricia DeBolt Honored — Patricia DeBolt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. DeBolt, was honored at a party Wednesday afternoon to mark her 11th birthday anniversary. There were seven guests present.

Leave for Visit In Kentucky— Mrs. H. G. Mangan and Mrs. Leo Moore departed last Thursday for St. Catherine, Ky., where they will visit Mrs. Mangan's daughter, Sister Maria del Ray.

Called to Kansas— Mrs. Vernon Lorenz received word Tuesday that her mother, Mrs. Clyde Bowles, of Jewell, Kans., was seriously ill. Mrs. Lorenz left Wednesday morning for her mother's home.

Mrs. Sullivan Hostess— The Pinochle club met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Thomas J. Sullivan. Mrs. Clifford Harding won high, Mrs. Wayne Norman was second, and Mrs. Ralph Beckwith was low.

Seniors Sneak— Sneak day, an annual senior class affair at O'Neill high school, was held Wednesday. The students had two chartered busses, which took them to Lincoln.

Supper Is Held Out-of-Doors— Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Saindon held a picnic Sunday on their lawn. The guests were the John Urtons and the Stanley Holly family.

A sunset tea honoring ladies 70 years of age and older was given today (Thursday) at 2:30 p. m. by the members of the WSCS at the Methodist church.

Mrs. H. L. Lindberg, president, was in charge of arrangements; Mrs. Bennett Gillespie, chairman of the decorations; Mrs. Harrison Bridge, refreshments; Mrs. Ted McElhaney, invitations to guests, and Mrs. Lewis Reimer, program committee.

The guests who were invited are Mrs. Betsy Alm, Mrs. Sam Barnard, Mrs. Frank Bowen, Mrs. Ella Carr, Mrs. Anna Conell, Mrs. Peter Curtis, Mrs. Dora Dimmitt, Mrs. L. G. Gillespie, Mrs. F. H. Griffith, Mrs. James Harnish, Mrs. Peter Lindberg, Mrs. Nathan Ross, Mrs. Maggie Siders, Mrs. Belle Summers, and Mrs. Addie Wrede.

English Visitor Is Guest at Tea—

A tea honoring Mrs. Donald Reid, whose home is in England, is being held this afternoon (Thursday) in Orchard at the home of Mrs. J. L. Harmon, who will be assisted by Mrs. T. Van Ostram. Mrs. Reid's mother is Mrs. W. G. Fletcher, also of Orchard.

Among the O'Neill guests will be Mrs. Ted McElhaney.

Up-and-At-It Club in Session— The Up-and-At-It 4-H club held its regular meeting Friday evening at the home of the Thomas girls. Books were received for the coming year. Helen Bowden gave a demonstration on "Planning Your Wardrobe." We enjoyed entertainment given by the Thomas girls. The next meeting will be May 25 at the home of Doris and Patty Pierson.

After the meeting a lunch was served by Mrs. Thomas.—Donna Whaley, reporter.

Four Musketeers Meet At Gillespie's— Mrs. L. G. Gillespie was hostess to the Four Musketeers Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. H. S. Moses won high score.

Miss Biglin Entertains— Miss Helen Biglin is entertaining the Jeudi club at her home this evening (Thursday).

HISTORY

HAS BEEN WRITTEN IN OUR LEDGERS

- Our experience reaches well back into the past of the O'Neill community. History has been written in our ledgers — and is being written today.
- The long-standing friendships formed in our years of service are among our strongest assets today. We believe in this community, and we are working in every possible way for its best interests.
