Miriam Kubichek, Kieth Abart Say Nuptial Vows

Miss Miriam Kubichek, daughter of Mrs. Susan Kubichek, of O'Neill, and Kieth Abart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Abart, of Emmet, were united in marriage at 9 a. m. Saturday by Rev. C. J. Werner in the rectory of St. Patrick's church here.

The bride wore a white suit with pink accessories and a corsage of white gardenias and pink roses. Her attendant, Mrs. Milton Nesmith, a niece, wore a pink suit with a similar corsage.

The bridegroom wore a tan suit and his brother Dercy Abart, serving as bestman, wore a dark brown suit.

The mothers of the couple wore corsages of single gardenias.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Wilfred Kubichek, brother of the bride; Mrs. M. J. Timlin and Mrs. John Haggerty, sisters of the bride; and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Nesmith, all of Casper, Wyo.; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McManamy, of Council Bluffs, Ia., sister and brother-in-law of the bride.

Breakfast Served

At 11 a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hancock. The bridal party's table was decorated with a three-tiered wedding cake prepared by Mrs. Marvin Johnson and Mrs. Hancock. The centerpiece was a bouquet of white peonies, carnations and snapdragons with a few sprays of fern. Pink-and-white candles and flowers were on the tables and around the room.

From 1 to 4 p. m., there was a reception at Mrs. Kubichek's home. Coffee and cake were served. Mrs. Johnson cut the cake, Mrs. Albert Evans poured, Mrs. Floyd Wilson cared for the silver, and Mrs. Charles Switzer, Mrs. Miles Jones, Miss Eunice Chudomelka assisted Barbara Hancock, niece of the bride, had charge of the guest book and Sharon Hancock, also a niece of the bride, was in charge of the gifts.

After the reception the newly-married couple left for Omaha and Council Bluffs.

They will make their home in O'Neill, where Mr. Abart is associated with the Fredrickson Livestock Commission company.

Chapel Scene of Wetzler - Worth Nuptial Rite

The Holiness chapel here was the scene of a pretty June nuptial rite in which Miss Blanche Marie Worth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Worth, became the bride of Benny R. Wetzler, son of Mary Wetzler. Rev. Melvin Grosenbach officiated in the 12:30 p. m. ceremony.

The matron-of-honor was Mrs. Adolph Wetzler, sister of the bride, and the bride's brother, S-Sgt. Charles E. Worth, of Chanut Field, Ill., was the bestman.

Elaime Miller and Barbara Ann Page, of Spencer, were flower girls. They wore white organdy dresses with pink-and-blue trimming.

The bride appeared in a white taffeta wedding gown reminiscent of the Martha Washington era. It had a drop-shoulder yoke of marquisette, a capped and molded bodice, a full-gathered skirt billowing over a hoop-skirt petticoat and sweeping back into a court train. A narrow ruffle of lace traced the neckline and the edges of the long, tight sleeves. Her finger-tip veil was of bridal illusion, fastened to a Mary Queen of Scot headdress. The bride carried a bouquet of pink-and-white sweet peas.

The bride's attendant wore a blue organdy gown with white flower design.

Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Cummings sang two duets, "I Love You Truly" and "Love Never Fails," accompanied by Mrs. Kenneth J. Scott at the piano.

The chapel was decorated in pink-and-white.

Mrs. Wetzler graduated from O'Neill high school in 1945. Mr. Wetzler served three years in the Navy following his schooling here. He is employed by the O'Neill Cleaners. Following their wedding trip to the Black Hills, the couple will reside in O'Neill.
