Miss Marion I. Bosn and James B. Hartly Exchange Vows

At an 8 a. m. nuptial mass Monday at St. Patrick's Catholic church, Miss Marion I. Bosn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Bosn, became the bride of James B. Hartly, son of Mrs. W. H. Hartly. Rt. Rev. J. G. McNamara officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an eggshell satin gown, princess style with a train. Her fingertip veil fell from a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of lilies.

Miss Margaret Bosn was maid-of-honor for her sister. She wore a long blue taffeta gown. On her head she wore a blusher of blue veiling and wore long matching gloves. Another sister, Miss Dorothy Bosn, was a bridesmaid. Her gown was of pink taffeta and her blusher was of pink net. Her long gloves matched her gown. Both attendants carried white carnations. Helen Hartly, a sister of the bridegroom served as junior bridesmaid. Her long gown was of white faille. She had a wreath of daisies in her hair and her bouquet was of daisies.

Mr. Hartly was attended by his brother-in-law, Kevin Kocina, of Creighton, and Bennett Grady.

James Merriman acted as usher.

Mrs. Bosn, mother of the bride, wore a black and white dress. Mrs. Hartly, the bridegroom's mother, wore a navy dress. Both had gardenia corsages.

Immediately following the ceremony, the families were served a breakfast at the M & M cafe. Afterwards a reception was held at the Bosn home for about 100 guests. Mrs. F.N. Cronin had charge of the guest book.

For her going-away outfit, the bride wore a beige suit with brown accessories. After a trip to Denver, Colo., the young couple will reside in O'Neill.

Mrs. Hartly is employed as secretary to the clerk of the county court. Mr. Hartly will be employed by Gambles.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kocina and daughter, Mrs. Neil Ohlinger, and Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Kocina and daughter, Lynn, all of Creighton.

Nadine Murray and Thomas Watson Wed

Miss Nadine Murray, daughter of Mrs. Theresa Murray, Wednesday became the bride of Thomas Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Watson, of Inman, at a 9 a. m. high mass at St. Patrick's Catholic church here. Rev. Cyril J. Werner, assistant pastor, officiated.

The bride wore a long white gown with a satin bodice, pointed-tip sleeves, and sweetheart neck. Her train was six feet long. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a strand of pearls. She wore a bracelet of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and she carried American beauty roses and a white rosary which was a gift of her mother.

Mrs. Jerry Lounsbury, who was matron-of-honor, wore a long pink satin taffeta gown. She wore a pink blusher on her head. Her bouquet was of talisman roses.

Little Geraldine Lounsbury carried the bride's train. She was dressed in a long blue satin gown and wore a wreath of blue flowers. She wore a corsage of pink roses.

William Watson, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. He wore a grey suit. The bridegroom wore a blue suit. The ushers were Patrick and Michael Gallagher, of Inman. All the men wore pink carnation boutonnieres.

A chorus accompanied the organ to provide the musical setting.

A wedding breakfast for the immediate family and close friends was held at 10 a. m. at the M & M cafe. A reception followed at the bride's home. The decorations were roses and garden flowers. The three-tiered cake was topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom.

Mrs. Murray wore a navy blue dress with blue accessories. Mrs. Watson wore a blue dress and blue accessories. They both had gardenia corsages.

For a going away outfit, the bride wore an aqua two-piece dress with white accessories. After a week's trip to Omaha and Lincoln, the young couple
