Graham-Eppenbach Nuptials Said

In a quiet ceremony on June 23 at 2:30 p. m. in the afternoon at the Methodist church in O'Neill, Rita Laree Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Graham, of O'Neill, became the bride of Orville Eppenbach, son of Mrs. Elsa Eppenbach, also of O'Neill. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Mullis, pastor of the church.

The bride chose for her wedding a white suit of imported linen, the jacket of which was fashioned with a dipping, flared back. Her accessories were of white and she wore a corsage of white gardenias, rier only jewelry was a strand of pearls. She carried a white Bible with a single rose gardenia placed upon it.

The bride's attendant, Mrs. Franklin Eppenbach, wore a suit similar to that of the bride's. Her accessories were of white and she wore a corsage of pink gardenias.

The bridegroom and his attendant Franklin Eppenbach, wore suits of conventional brown with white carnation boutonnières.

At 4 p. m. a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents for members of the immediate families.

The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a large four-tiered wedding cake. The cake was flanked on either side by vases of pink roses and fern sprays.

The newlyweds left that evening for a week's honeymoon in the Black Hills and other points.

Mrs. Eppenbach is well-known in this community, having always made her home with her parents.

Mr. Eppenbach served nearly four years in the army, part of which time was served overseas in the European theater of operations where he earned the Silver Star for meritorious service. Since his discharge on October 21, 1945, he has been employed at Marcellus Implement Co.

The young couple will make their home one mile southeast of O'Neill, where they have an apartment with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brewster.
