PATIENCE ON A PORCH

Scenes such as this one which occurred at Ottumwa, Ia., were common for a time throughout the vast flooded areas of the Midwest. Hardest hit city, however, was Ottumwa where thousands of persons were driven from their homes when the Des Moines river overflowed its banks to inundate most of the town. Along the Mississippi, farm lands were flooded from Keokuk, Ia., down to St. Louis, Mo.
