SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION IN PICNIC

The annual group gathering of Sunday schools in Holt and Boyd counties which operate in conjunction with the American Sunday-School Union will be held Sunday in the grove on the Ralph Ernst farm on Eagle creek, about 18 miles north of O'Neill.

An all-day program is planned and everyone interested in Sunday school work is cordially invited to attend, a spokesman said. Speaker for the day will be Rev. Harry E. Udd, of Omaha, district superintendent of the American Sunday-School Union. Rev. Melvin Grosenbach, of O'Neill, will also speak. Special music for the occasion will be furnished by a Holt county male quartet and other groups from the cooperating Sunday schools.

The day's activities will begin at 10 a.m. with a joint Sunday school session with teachers chosen from the various schools. Rev. Udd will bring the morning message. After a basket dinner the afternoon program which will consist of special music, Sunday school reports, group singing, a devotional message will be held, closing with a message by Rev. Udd on the work and aims of the American Sunday School Union in rural America.
