To Our Friends and Neighbors

Neil and Julia Ryan are proud to announce the opening of their new store, which will be called "Your Neighborhood Store," located two blocks east and two blocks south of the public library.

Although this is the first store of this type in O'Neill, we feel satisfied that the convenience and friendliness of this service will appeal to the people of this town, as it has done in other places.

We cordially invite all to visit and patronize this new modern establishment.

We will maintain a high standard of service and the best quality of merchandise to please you.
