Norma Jean Fox, William Lang Wed in Holiness Chapel

Miss Norma Jean Fox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Fox, became the bride of William Lang, of Marian, Ind., here last Thursday. The ceremony was performed at the Holiness chapel by Rev. Melvin Grosenbach.

The bride wore a two-piece blue crepe dress and had white accessories. She carried a white Bible. Her corsage was of roses. Mrs. Benny Wetzler, who was matron-of-honor, wore a pink crepe street-length dress. Her accessories were white. Her corsage was of pink roses and white carnations.

Miss Mary Arlene Fox, sister of the bride, and Miss Ethel Lamb were the candlelighters. Their identical dresses were pink silk street-length and they were wearing matching ribbons in their hair.

Benny Wetzler served as bestman. Daniel Page and William Herman were the ushers.

Baskets of flowers decorated the altar. A lighted cross formed the background.

Mrs. Raymond Gowan, of Page, who sang "Always" and "Love Never Filleth," was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. C. E. Worth.

About 100 guests attended the reception in the church basement.

After a short trip to the Black Hills, the couple will return about August 1 to a Bible school at Marian, Ind., where they are students.

Miss Ross Is 11
